UNION REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

ELECTION ON TUESDAY, OCTOBER 8.

SENATE—RUSSELL ERRETT.
ASSEMBLY—AUGUSTUS BECKERT, GEORGE WILSON, W. R. FORD, GEORGE R RIDDLE, ALEXANDER MILLAR, DAVID L. SMITH.
PROTHONOTARY—JACOB H WALTER.
TREASURER—MAJ. JOSEPH F. DENNISTON.
COMMISSIONER—ARCHIBALD PILLOW.
CORONER—WILLIAM CLAWSON.
JURY COMMISSIONER—CHARLES A. PUGH.
DIRECTOR OF POOR—ROBERT H. DAVIS.

SHALL WE CONSOLIDATE?

This question is to be decided at the election on Tuesday next. The wonder is that there should be any doubt in the case. Other cities regard us with amazement, in view of the opposition that exists. Communities, like individuals, usually consult what is manifestly for their interest. That it will be for the immediate and permanent interest of Pittsburgh and the outlying cities and boroughs to unite and become one, is as certain as it is for the advantage of a family to be united or an individual to be reputed wealthy, prosperous and increasing in whatever contributes to his influence and usefulness at home and abroad. If it is unwise to unite, then why should we not divide up still more than we are now divided? Who proposes that, and why is not just as reasonable as opposition to consolidation? Why did Allegheny, Manchester and Reserve township consolidate? Simply because it was for the interest of all concerned. It came about in the order of nature, by the growth of those communities—because there were a hundred reasons for uniting and few for remaining separate. With them the act of consolidation but gave effect to what was already a practical fact. In that act the entire principle involved in the question to be decided next Tuesday was conceded. They who have affirmed it on a small scale cannot with consistency oppose it on a larger scale, especially when the reasons for it are far more numerous and forcible.

It has been demonstrated that the taxes of the outlying parts will be less than they now are. What is now Pittsburgh, instead of possessing anything like a controlling influence in the consolidated municipality, will be a minority. Allegheny city, with her recent absorption, will outvote her, and the outlying boroughs will be at least her equal. As a whole we shall be a great and prosperous city. Consolidation will only be obedience to national laws, which cannot be resisted without detriment to those who attempt it. Pittsburgh and these surrounding communities—with no diverse interests—have grown to this municipal estate—and it is as unnatural to resist the fact, as it would be in one to attempt to resist the fact of his having reached manhood's estate.

REASONS WHY A REPUBLICAN SHOULD VOTE FOR A DEMOCRAT.

The Republicans of Pennsylvania owe it to themselves, as Republicans, not to be persuaded to vote for the Democratic nominee for Judge of the Supreme Court, unless there are some more serious objections to Judge WILLIAMS than have yet been advanced.

In DAVID PAUL BROWN's late effort to defeat the party which he says "he is and always has been a member," he uses some very curious and remarkable arguments. In particular, he repeatedly adverts to the fact that Judge WILLIAMS is but forty-six years of age, while his competitor is ten years his senior. Now for the information of DAVID PAUL BROWN and others who may feel disposed to give weight to this fact, we would say, that at a recent nomination for Judge in Allegheny county the very reason, and no other, that one of her leading lawyer's claims were set aside, was, that he was considered unlikely to last out for the ten year term. Admitting that Judge SHARSWOOD may outlive the ten years, is it likely that he will be perfectly vigorous at sixty-six, and not impaired or enfeebled in health and strength by the cares and study that necessarily belong to the position he seeks? We think not. Mr. DAVID PAUL BROWN cites us for example the great MANSFIELD, Chief Justice of England, who was fifty years of age at the time of his appointment, but he omits to give us the ages of some of our own jurists. We will give him the example of one who he strangely forgets to mention—President WASHINGTON appointed Mr. Chief Justice MARSHALL to the Bench in 1801, and at that time he was only forty-six years of age. Surely we may venture to elect a Judge to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania of the same age that MARSHALL was when appointed by our great WASHINGTON to be Chief Justice of the United States!

But we are told that Judge SHARSWOOD is a native of Philadelphia, and the inference is that he therefore has, and of course must have, far greater opportunities than any Judge in another part of the State for the exercise of his judicial wisdom. "Every day brings something new," and here we have something new under the sun, in the discovery that in Philadelphia, above all other places in the State of Pennsylvania, are the subtle cases and knotty points of law to be argued and decided! Why then, Mr. DAVID PAUL BROWN, better keep Judge SHARSWOOD in so fitting a position as that he now holds. But he is a Philadelphian, and therefore all the Republicans of the State ought to vote for him, even if he is a Democrat—and has decided that Greenbacks are unconstitutional! Not so, Mr. BROWN—the Republicans have heard the changes rung on the word unconstitutional by ANDREW JOHNSON, until they are almost prepared to hear him say that he alone is the Constitution, and they want him to have no word of encouragement from the Keystone State.

Can no good thing come out of Pennsylvania unless it be from Philadelphia? Do our fellow-citizens of that magnificent city—with its great Union League,—the mother of all the Union Leagues during the war,—and its splendid record of patriotism and liberality, do they agree with Mr. DAVID PAUL BROWN in wishing to defeat Republicanism?—do they ignore the balance of the State? and want all the Judges? No, surely not. There have been a few men found outside of their city, and they have heard of WILLIAM WILKINS, Judge BALDWIN, and many others that will compare well with any men.

It does not seem to be asking too much for the Western part of Pennsylvania to name a fit candidate for the office of Judge of the Supreme Court, and expect the hearty co-operation of their Republican brothers in the Eastern part. Is not this much due to the constant and steady support that Republicanism has received here? When Mr. LINCOLN received the return from Allegheny county of 10,000 majority, he said, "what State is that?" And on again being informed he replied, "it must be a mistake; why that's big enough majority for a State."

If Philadelphia does her duty next week there is no fear of Judge WILLIAMS's defeat, and we trust the Republicans there will not follow the advice of Mr. DAVID PAUL BROWN.

CONSOLIDATION.

An impression prevails that at the meeting in Sharpsburg on Saturday evening last, the vote taken resulted in a majority declaring against Consolidation. This is an error. The meeting voted almost unanimously in favor of Consolidation. This has been regarded as one of the strongholds of the Anti-Consolidationists, and the vote is justly regarded as very encouraging to the friends of the measure.

The Nashville Trouble Before the Cabinet.

Disturbance in West Virginia.

The Public Debt Statement Incomplete.

Internal Revenue Receipts Increasing.

Engineers Wanted in the Naval Service.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 1, 1867.

The Cabinet.

The Cabinet meeting to-day was brief and unimportant. General Grant's and General Thomas's official reports of the result of the Nashville trouble was submitted, together with General Grant's telegram of Friday last requesting him to sustain the State authorities.

The Alabama Election.

Dispatches from Montgomery state that the first day's election in Alabama has passed off quietly so far as heard from. In Montgomery, the voting was quite heavy, in view of the fact that the election will last two days more. In the old Montgomery Congressional District, the colored majority will reach over three thousand.

Trouble in West Virginia.

The War Department has been called upon, through the Freedmen's Bureau, for a detachment of troops to go to Barbour county, West Virginia, to aid in the preservation of the peace. A company left for there to-night.

Gen. Steadman.

Gen. Steadman arrived in town this morning, on business connected with the Internal Revenue Department, and left this evening. His visit possesses no political significance whatever.

The Public Debt Statement

For September will be delayed, owing to the non-receipt of returns, until Saturday, but the balance has been made up, and shows but little or no reduction. It was at first estimated that there would be a reduction, though not so large as the August statement.

Army Recruiting Brisk.

Recruiting for the Regular army, according to returns received at the Adjutant General's office, is exceedidgly brisk. Many of the new regiments are rapidly filling up.

No Lives Lost.

The announcement that some of the officers and crew of the ill-fated United States steamer Sacramento were lost, was incorrect. Letters from an officer to friends in this city, state that no lives were lost, and that the ship General Caulfield had been chartered to convey the officers and crew home.

Who He Is.

Col. Jeffries, whose appointment as Register of the Treasury was announced in these dispatches last night, is at present on the staff of Gov. Swann.

Revenue Receipts Increasing.

The internal revenue receipts are again increasing, and to-day reached nearly one million dollars.

Navy Engineers Wanted.

The navy department will incorporate a limited number of engineers into the regular service. Persons who served not less than two years during the rebellion, can make application for examination, stating their age, and forwarding a letter of recommendation, to the board of examiners now in session at Philadelphia.

Trouble Over Distilleries in Pennsylvania.

The Collector of the Fifth Pennsylvania Internal Revenue District, to day reported to the Treasury Department that he had been prevented from investigating the condition of certain distilleries in his District, by a large body of men, who had surrounded the premises. The Department has called upon the United States Marshal to furnish a force to aid the collector in enforcing the law.

To be Removed.

The Treasury Department decided to-day to remove Deputy Commissioner of Revenue Messmore. As it is not a Presidential appointment he dismissal is final.

WASHINGTON, October 1.

FRIENDLY INDIANS.

A letter has been received at the office of Indian Affairs, signed by the head chiefs of the Osage Indians, and dated at Osage Nation, south of Kansas, and stating their desire to remain on friendly terms with the United States Government.

SANITARY INFORMATION.

The Secretary of State, at the request of the Dutch Minister, has sent a circular to the Mayors of the principal cities, asking copies of all laws, regulations and ordinances for the preservation or improvement of the sanitary condition of our cities. This and all correlative information is desired by the Netherland Government.

THREE PER CENT. CERTIFICATES.

The Secretary of the Treasury, considering the act of Congress of March 2d, 1867, mandatory, has this day issued the following: Notice is hereby given that the Assistant Treasurer at New York is prepared and has been instructed to issue three per cent. certificates as authorized by act of Congress approved March 2d, 1867, in denominations of $5,000 and $10,000 each, in redemption of the compound interest notes maturing in October and December next. The accrued interest on all notes presented for such redemption will be paid in currency.

REVENUE OFFICERS RESISTED IN RICHMOND.

The Internal Revenue Bureau received information this morning from the office of the Fifth District of Virginia, that extensive frauds in distilling whisky were discovered at Richmond. An effort to seize the establishment was unsuccessful, the officers having been met by a large body of men, and forced to retire. Measures have been taken to suppress the establishment, but further trouble is anticipated.

TRIAL OF JEFF. DAVIS.

It is understood that the trial of Jeff. Davis was considered in Cabinet meeting to-day.

THE DEBT STATEMENT.

The Public Debt statement, ready to be issued to-morrow, will show no reduction in the debt. The principal change since the last statement is the gold in the Treasury, which shows an increase over the amount held in August.

THE IMPEACHMENT TESTIMONY.

The printing of the impeachment testimony has been suspended for the present, and will not be resumed until the week previous to the assembling of Congress. This is deemed necessary to prevent it being known before presentation to Congress. The obligation of secresy imposed upon the employees of the Government Printing Office is not deemed sufficient to keep the testimony out of the hands of newspaper correspondents.

PLACE OF HOLDING THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.

A member of the National Republican Executive Committee says correspondence has taken place between members of the Committee relative to the place of holding the next National Convention. Chicago, Indianapolis and Cincinnati are the most prominent places suggested. It seems probable Chicago will be fixed upon.

INTERNAL REVENUE RECEIPTS.

The receipts from internal revenue sources to-day were $795,000. The aggregate receipts for September were $13,000,000.

ARMY ORDERS.

Brevet Maj. Gen. James A. Hardee, Inspector General has been ordered to Fort Larned, Kansas, on special service. Brevet Major General Clark is assigned to duty as Chief Commissary of the Division of Missouri at St. Louis, relieving Brevet Brig. Gen. L. J. Haines, who reports to Gen. Sherman. Brevet Col. J. McL. Taylor has been ordered to report to General Halleck. Brevet Maj. Gen. W. F. Barry, Colonel of Second Artillery, has been relieved from his present command, and ordered to the Department of California. Brevet Col. Peter C. Haines, Corps of Engineers, is assigned to duty at St. Louis.

REPORT ON THE BRADLEY-FISHER CASE.

The committee appointed by members of the bar last August to investigate the difficulty between Bradley and Judge Fisher arising out of the Surratt trial, reported at an adjourned meeting to-day. The report quotes from Blackstone's Commentaries to show what constitutes contempt, and declares Bradley should have had an opportunity for explanation. Three Judges are required to admit, and certainly one could not expel an attorney. The report recommends the adoption of a resolution declaring the order of Judge Fisher striking Bradley's name from the roll null and void. The second resolution authorized the chairman to present the report of the committee to the Court. Some weeks ago the other members of the bar passed resolutions sustaining Judge Fisher.

MANSFIELD, OHIO.

Opening of Richland County Fair--Prize Base Ball Matches---Trotting Match---The Drouth.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

MANSFIELD, O., October 1, 1867.

The Richland County Fair commenced to-day. The attendance was not large and the day has been principally devoted to receiving and classifying articles and stock. A large attendance is expected to-morrow and next day.

Considerable interest was manifested in the base ball contests for the prizes of twenty and ten dollars offered by the society for the best and second best clubs. The Independents and Richland clubs entered for the first prize. The game was called on the close of the fourth innings by the committee, it being evident that the Richlands were no match for the Independents. The score stood: Independents, ninety-seven; Richlands, six. For the second prize, the Lightfoots, Mohicans and Richlands have entered. The game between the Lightfoots and Mohicans was played to-day, the score standing Mohicans sixty-five, Lightfoots twenty. The Mohicans play the Richlands to-morrow.

The trotting match for horses that never before trotted in public, took place this afternoon. Six horses were entered and made time as follows: Mile heats—J. W. Gates' black horse, 2:48; Alex. Patterson's bay horse, 2:50; W. S. Hickox's sorrel gelding, 2:51; S. Reynold's bay mare, 3:10; J. M. Jolley's bay gelding, 3:14; Robert Coulter's sorrel horse, 3:17.

The drouth still continues and no signs of a change. It is likely that the display of fruits and late vegetables will be meagre in consequence. The corn crop has suffered very materially. The grass has all dried up, and many farmers have been compelled to commence feeding their stock already.

WELLSVILLE, OHIO.

Large and Enthusiastic Republican Mass Meeting---Speeches of Vice President Wade and Col. Dunbar.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WELLSVILLE, O., October 1, 1857.

One of the most enthusiastic and magnificent mass meetings that has ever been held in this county has just been closed. Hon. Benjamin F. Wade made one of the best speeches that has ever been delivered in the county, and considering that the County Fair commences to-morrow in New Lisbon, and that New Lisbon, Salem and Alliance have each had a mass meeting this fall, this has been one of the best meetings ever held in the county. Mr. Wade spoke two hours and ten minutes.

The East Liverpool cornet band played an air, and then Mr. Dunbar spoke an hour or more. Mr. Wade made a speech of half an hour again, making the most complete refutation of all Democratic orators' arguments we ever heard.

The Alliance Silver Cornet band then played the "Star Spangled Banner," not inferior to the best we have ever heard, and next "Yankee Doodle" in the same style.

Taking everything into consideration we are forced to say that we have never seen anything to equal this demonstration in Columbiana county. Speeches will be made here to-night and in East Liverpool. The Republicans of old Columbiana are wide awake, as they will show on the eighth. D. L. M.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 1, 1867.

THE CROTON BANK FAILURE.

The Croton National Bank was closed by the Government Examiner this morning, under section 46 of the banking law, having failed to redeem its circulating notes in lawful money on demand. A receiver will probably be appointed to-morrow. The capital of the bank was $200,000, a considerable part of which appears to have been lost. The circulation is $180,000, which of course, is secured, and will be redeemed at the Treasury with the proceeds of bonds placed at Washington. The deposits amount to some $300,000, one-third from country creditors, and probably all will be paid eventually. The bank has no Wall street deposits, and its failure has scarcely produced any effect.

SALE OF GOVERNMENT VESSELS.

Eleven Government vessels were sold at auction to-day. The ship North Carolina sold for $30,000; steamers Rhode Island, $70,000; Augusta, $40,000; Massachusetts, $50,000; Pontiac, $17,000; Estella, $9,000; Conemaugh, $17,100; Tahoma, $13,000; Sonora, $16,900; Osceola, $16,000.

ATTEMPTED WIFE MURDER.

Robert Hays attempted to murder his wife in Brooklyn last night. She jumped from a window twenty-five feet from the ground, and was probably fatally injured. The man was arrested.

BASE BALL CHAMPIONSHIP.

It appears the Atlantics have not given up the base ball championship. They requested a postponement of the game, as three of their nine were disabled, but the Athletics refusing, the Atlantics put a muffin nine in the field, with whom the Athletics refused to play.

BOILER EXPLOSION.

A boiler exploded with terrific force in the brewery of Ehsold & Seltel, at Newark, Monday evening, by which two men were killed. A dwelling house adjoining was levelled to the ground. Its inmates escaped with slight injuries.

INVITED TO ALBANY.

Gov. Fenton has invited Gen. Sheridan to Albany.

COLLISION.

By a collision between a train and a locomotive at Chatham, on the Morris and Essex Railroad, Monday, a brakeman was fatally injured.

GEN. SHERIDAN

Visited the Stock Exchange Board and Gold Room to-day, and was enthusiastically received. He subsequently had a splendid reception in Brooklyn. He attends the Paterson races to-morrow, holds a reception for ladies at Union League rooms Thursday, and leaves Thursday evening for Newport, proceeding thence to Boston.

FIRE IN BROOKLYN.

A fire last night burnt Peter Seitzer's cabinet shop, on Flushing avenue, Brooklyn, and three tenements. Loss $12,000; partly insured.

A BRUTE.

Thomas Kelly brutally beat his wife in Jersey City, last night, and kicked her down five flights of stairs. Her recovery is doubtful. Kelly was arrested.

FIREMEN'S ROW.

A disgraceful firemen's row occurred, in Jersey City last night. Clubs and stones were freely used, and one or two persons severely injured.

ROBBED BY A BOOKKEEPER.

Messrs. Ballou & Bros., Broadway, have been robbed by their bookeeper, to the amount of $4,000. The thief has been arrested.

WHISKY SEIZURES.

Several whisky seizures have been made, including the rectifying establishment of Walter Scott, on John street, Brooklyn.

NEW SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

The Daily News has a report that the President has tendered the Secretaryship of the Treasury to Robert J. Walker, and that he may be required to assume the duties immediately after the fall elections.

THE CONNECTICUT BANK DEFALCATION.

The bank defalcation in Connecticut is in the Litchfield County Bank, New Milford. The cashier's name is Conklin, and the funds were lost in stock speculations.

STEAM MILL BURNED.

The steam mill of Sherman Bros., Brooklyn, was completely destroyed by fire this evening. Loss $60,000; fully insured in New York and Brooklyn offices. The dwelling house adjoining was also destroyed. Loss $80,000; insured.

ASPINWALL.

Gen. Kilby Smith---Coffee Crop of Guatemala---Prado Proclaimed President of Peru---Discovery of Gold in Chile, &c., &c.

NEW YORK, October 1.—The steamer Henry Chauncey, from Aspinwall on the 23d, brings $819,000 in California treasure. She brings little news.

Gen. Kilby Smith, our Consul to Panama, sailed for San Francisco for the benefit of his health.

An attempt at revolution in Guatemala was suppressed. The coffee crop there is expected to be very large.

Advices from Peru state that Prado was proclaimed Constitutional President, August 31st, and the new constitution promulgated.

An important discovery of gold has been made in the northern part of Chile.

The Ecuadorian Congress had a stormy debate, resulting in the expulsion of ex-President Garca Moreno from the Senate. He left the country forever. An attempt to expel Don Antonio Flores from the House failed. It was claimed by the Red party that both were illegally elected.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Proceedings of the Democratic State Convention--Coppery Resolutions.

WORCESTER, October 1.—In the Massachusetts Democratic State Convention to-day, about five hundred delegates were present. Henry G. Parker, of Cambridge was chosen President.

After organization, the various committees were appointed, and a vote to nominate a candidate for Governor by ballot, after which the Convention took a recess for dinner.

On reassembling, after informal ballot, the final vote was taken, and resulted in the nomination of John Quincy Adams for Governor. The nomination was received with much enthusiasm, and subsequently made unanimous. George M. Stearns, of Chicopee, was nominated for Lieutenant Governor.

The Committee on Resolutions submitted a report, which was adopted. The first resolution affirms the doctrine of State rights. The second demands economy in the administration of the National Government. The third denounces Congressmen for passing unconstitutional laws. The fourth expresses doubt of the Republicans having sympathy for the soldiers. The fifth proclaims the doctrine that American citizens when abroad shall not be subject to arrest for words spoken at home. [This was received with shouts from the Fenians.] The sixth promises the co-operation of the Democrats of Massachusetts in an uprising throughout the country. The seventh expresses alarm at the increase of the State debt. The eighth indorses labor movements. The ninth declares that the Democratic party is opposed to infractions of individual rights, and the enforcement of laws through the espionage of paid spies, as infamous. The resolutions were severally and as a whole adopted, Convention giving three hearty cheers. The Committee on credentials reported two hundred and nineteen towns represented by nine hundred and sixty-three delegates.

FIRE AT SEA.

Steamer Tioga Destroyed--Three Persons Burnt to Death.

NEW YORK, October 1.—The steamer Rapidan has arrived here from New Orleans via Havana on the 25th. She reports at 2 A. M. of the 25th, she discovered a vessel on fire about five miles distant. We immediately hove to for her, and found her the steamer Tioga, from New Orleans via Havana for Philadelphia. We at once sent boats to render assistance, and after getting the passengdrs aboard, sent word to the Captain we would lie by until the fire was extinguished or the ship abandoned, which latter occurred at 7:30. At 9 o'clock we proceeded on our course, and at 10:30 saw her careen to the port, and suppose she sunk. All aboard were saved but the following, who were burnt to death: Perry Short, second assistant engineer, John C. O'Donnell, oiler, and Thomas Crowley, coal passer.

DOMINION OF CANADA.

Death of an Actor.

LOUISVILLE, October 1.—Jas. M. Dawson, a noted comedian, died here last night.

THE CONNELLSVILLE ROAD.

Shall its Charter be Lost or Saved?

This important question will be decided at the coming election. All appeals to the Legislature having failed, the validity of the charter now depends on the decision of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in a suit now pending before it.

Two of the Judges, viz: Agnew and Strong, are said to be in favor of the charter, and the other two, Thompson, of Erie, and Read, of Philadelphia, against it.

The election, therefore, of the fifth Judge decides the question for or against the charter.

Judge Williams, of Pittsburgh, has always been in favor of the charter, and Sharswood, of Philadelphia, is believed to be against it, being a Philadelphian, and an intimate friend of Judge Black, the Attorney of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and against the charter of the Connellsville Road in the pending suit, who no doubt knew the opinion of Sharswood when he made a powerful and earnest speech in his favor in the nominating convention.

The people of Pittsburgh, where Judge Williams resides, are in favor of the Connellsville Road. Philadelphia, where Sharswood resides and his interests are, is against the road.

These facts the people ought to know in time to vote understandingly. One vote may decide the question.

STEUBENVILLE, OHIO.

The Republican Meeting of Saturday Evening---Gen. Gibson's Speech.

Special Correspondence of Pittsburgh Commercial.

STEUBENVILLE, September 30, 1867.

"Let every lady and gentleman who would enjoy a memorable treat, come out to-night and hear Gen. Gibson. Senator Brooks will also be on hand to address the meeting." Thus read Saturday evening's Herald; and we forthwith donned our hats and started. As we turned the corner of Market street, the Court House yard brilliantly illuminated, burst upon our astonished view. Chinese lanterns seemed to hang about as thick as leaves upon the trees, and we have never seen the old building itself more becomingly dressed out in our national colors. Then such a sea of faces, we don't expect to meet there again, until next Friday evening, when Bingham comes for the last grand rally; then everybody will turn out and bring their family with them.

Senator Brooks addressed the meeting first, and he managed to say a great deal in the short time he occupied the stand.

Gen. Gibson's speech was fine. He truthfully stated the causes of the rebellion, logically discussed them; then following in the footsteps of his distinguished predecessors here, charged the whole thing to the Democratic party. One of the very remarkable features of this political meeting was, he had the people in tears (strong brave men included) several times, when he related touching incidents of the war that had come under his own observation. While away on military duty himself, his little one had died at home. His wife, when writing to him of the sad event, said: "I will do the mourning for our boy, while you fight the battles of our country."

Three cheers were proposed for the patriotic mothers and daughters of our land, and most enthusiastically responded to. UNION.

LATE NEWS.

The Croton National Bank, New York, is reported to have failed, with heavy liabilities.

The following disasters on Lake Michigan are reported: The schooner Pilot reports having seen, about ten miles down the Lake, on Monday, a small vessel bottom upwards. As none of the crew were to be seen, it is supposed that all were drowned. The schooner Maple Leaf sunk near the mouth of the harbor. The schooner D. E. O. Dickinson, which left Chicago on Sunday, sprang a leak and was obliged to return. Other disasters are reported.

As fast as the new regiments of the regular army have been filled up by recruiting, many of the commissioned officers who have been detailed on duty with the Freedmen's Bureau, and the other special service, have been ordered by General Grant to join their regiments. In this way the number of officers on duty with the Bureau in the South is being gradually reduced.

During a recent interview with an old Tennessee friend, the purport of which has been related publicly, President Johnson stated he would take his final stand against Congress by resisting its right if it assumed it to suspend him during the progress of the impeachment trial, if he was impeached. So many "ifs" spoil the threat, but it is probable that the first opportunity afforded the President to take a stand against Congress on this subject will be to veto a bill providing for a suspension from office, of all public officers who may have been impeached, until they have been tried, which will undoubtedly be introduced and passed early in the session.

Governor Fenton, of New York, has pardoned John M. Kean, a defaulting postoffice clerk, who was sentenced in 1862 to ten years' imprisonment. The Governor, it is said, will also shortly pardon young Ketchum, the great embezzler, who is said to be very ill from confinement, and can't live long.

THE TURF.

First Day of the Paterson Races.

PATERSON, N. J., October 1.—The Paterson races commenced to-day, under the most favorable auspices. The attendance is large. The defeat of Ruthless by DeCourcey for the St. Leger excited great consternation among the knowing ones, and large amounts changed hands. The first race, trial steeple chase sweepstakes for horses that never won a steeple or hurdle race, was won by Tarquin; time 6:35. The second, Underwood gift, $300, for all ages, mile heats, was won by Delaware, five years, in two straight heats; time 1:48¾ each heat. For the third, St. Leger, thirty-four entries, two and a quarter miles, was won by DeCourcey, three years, who beat Ruthless two and a half lengths; time 4:15¼. The fourth, selling race, all ages, mile and a quarter, was won by Clara Clarta.

ST. LOUIS, October 1.—There were two closely contested races at the Laclede Course to-day. In the first race, mile heats, free for all, for $400, O. O. West named Mollie McCarty; E. A. Smith named Mollie Austin; Jesse Potts named Diamond; Turner & Johnson named Chicamauga; Dr. F. Hutchinson named Ruth; John G. Shaw named sorrel gelding by Matt. Davis, all of which started. Chicamauga took the first heat in 1:46½, Mollie McCarty took the two next heats and the race in 1:49½ and 1:48½.

The second race, two mile heats, free for all, $600, the following horses entered, all of which started: A. C. Franklin named Victorine; Smith named Fannie Brown; G. A. McKay named Mary Winne. The race was won by Fannie Brown in two straight heats, time 3:42¾ and 3:45. The favorites were slaughtered in both races.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., October 1.—The Fifth National Fair of the New Haven Horse Association opened this morning at Hamilton Park. Every class was filled at an early hour, 138 entries having been made. A large number of people were in attendance, and everything passed off satisfactory. Dan Rice won the purse of $250 for fastest stallions, time 2:36, 2:37 and 2:34. Dan Rice, Lucy and Old Pat are entered for a big race on Thursday. The city is filled with strangers attending the Fair.

ALABAMA.

First Day of the Covention Election.

MOBILE, October 1.—The election on the convention question commenced to-day, with the following result: Mobile county, 750 blacks, 6 whites; Mobile city, 2,330 blacks, 26 whites; total, 3,089 blacks and 32 whites. The election is passing off quietly.

Vessel Disabled at Sea.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 1.—The ship Edward O'Brien, from New York, has arrived, partially disabled by a storm off Cape Horn. During the gale her rudder was twisted off, leaving the vessel unmanageable. The ship lay fourteen hours in a helpless condition. Large quantities of water were shipped through the hole in the stern of the vessel and the fore hatch, which was opened to secure the cargo. The damage to the cargo is not determined, but it is apprehended it will be considerable.

From Richmond.

RICHMOND, VA., October 1.—In the United States Circuit Court to-day, counsel for the party charged with defrauding the revenue tax on whisky, moved to quash the indictment because the Federal Courts being of limited jurisdiction, cannot take cognizance of any crime not expressly declared so by act of Congress.

There was a heavy frost here last night.

Fire in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, October 1.—A fire this afternoon destroyed the buildings of the Butchers' Hide Association, and several dwelling houses in Noble street, above Eleventh. Loss about $50,000, mostly insured.

Republican Majority in Colorado Legislature.

DENVER, COL., October 1.—The official canvass of the late election shows a Republican majority of ten in the Legislature. The State question was not agitated.

Arrival of Coolies at Havana.

HAVANA, September 30.—Arrived, Spanish steamer Catalona, eighty-four days from Macao, with a party of Coolies. She has been quarantined at Mariel.

The Scourge in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, October 1.—There is no abatement in the yellow fever. The interments during the twenty-four hours ending this morning, were sixty-three.

Saw Mill Destroyed.

FOND DU LAC, WIS., October 1.—Bonnell & Nichol's saw mill was destroyed by fire this morning. Loss $10,000; no insurance.

INDIANA STATE FAIR.

Opening of the Fifteenth Annual Exhibition---Great Display of Stock---Pittsburgh Plows.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

TERRE HAUTE, IND., October 1, 1867.

The fifteenth annual exhibition of the Indiana State Agricultural Society was opened to the public to-day. The entries are large. Implement, Power, Mechanics and Agricultural Halls are well represented. There are a number of new machines in the different departments.

The display of stock is the best and probably the largest ever made in the Northwest. A trotting premium for one thousand dollars takes place on Friday. This and other liberal inducements have brought together some of the best stock in the West.

Pittsburgh is well represented in the plow department. J. T. F. W.

STATE FAIRS.

Exhibitions in Illinois and Iowa.

QUINCY, ILLINOIS, October 1.—The annual exhibition of the Illinois State Agricultural Society commenced to-day. The arrangement of the grounds and allotment of space to exhibitors is not satisfactory. The display, however, is the largest ever made, especially in stock and machinery, the entries of which are without precedent. Nearly all of the departments are full, and articles still arriving.

CLINTON, IOWA, October 1.—The fourth annual exhibition of the Iowa State Agricultural Society commenced to-day. There is every prospect of a successful fair. Every department presents a fine appearance, and in some there is the best display ever made in the West. The editorial convention will be held on Thursday. Over one hundred representatives are present. The opening address will be delivered by Gen. N. B. Baker, of Clinton.

ST. LOUIS.

Robbery---Cattle in Kansas---General Hancock.

ST. LOUIS, October 1.—The liquor house of Hatch, Maurie & Co., was entered by burglars last night, and the safe robbed of $1,000 in money, a large quantity of notes and valuable papers, two watches and a diamond pin valued at $4,000, and $35,000 in Government bonds was left behind by the burglars.

Advices from the West say 30,000 cattle from Texas and New Mexico are now collected at Abeline, Kansas, on the Union Pacific Railway, awaiting purchasers.

Gen. Hancock has arrived here.

NASHVILLE.

Installation of New City Government.

NASHVILLE, October 1.—There was a slight frost this morning.

The new Mayor and City Council were installed into office to-day. S. F. Allen was elected President of the Board of Aldermen, and A. B. Shankland, of the Council. Judge M. M. Brien administered the oath of office.

Chancellor Harrison has made no response to the petition of the city authorities for an injunction.

Fire in Boston.

BOSTON, October 1.—A fire this morning destroyed the buildings on Sargent's wharf occupied by the Boston Linseed Company, whose loss, with the building, will reach $100,000; also the building occupied by the Bay State Sugar Refining Company. The latter establishment was owned by Messer & Tillotson, and contained a large quantity of sugar and valuable machinery, the loss on which is estimated at $150,000. The losses are mostly covered by insurance.

FROM NEW YORK.

Life in First-Class Hotels---Hotels on the European Plan---Cheap Living in the Metropolis -- Amusements---Morals of the Great City.

Special Correspondence of Pittsburgh Commercial.

NEW YORK, September 28, 1867.

BRIBING HOTEL WAITERS AT TABLE.

New York is full of visitors from all parts of the country. Every foreign vessel arriving is crowded with passengers, and the railroad trains from all directions are filled to their utmost capacity. It is very difficult to procure choice rooms in the first-class Hotels, and often one is very lucky if he secures, on application, a "pigeon coop" in the sixth or seventh story. For these little rooms, requiring four or five minutes' hard walking to get to them, the guest must pay from four and a half to five dollars per day, and the servant's fees and extras will take half as much more, or else you will not have the proper "standing" with the waiters, and if you have not that, you will soon find it out when taking your meals. How nicely a waiter will serve you—to the disgust of your non-posted friend, having the next seat at dinner, if you will on sitting down, quietly slip into his hand a one dollar greenback; don't offer less than fifty cents, if you want to be served right. We infer from observation and inquiry, that a hotel of the class of the St. Nicholas, Metropolitan or Fifth avenue, not less than one hundred dollars a day passes directly into the hands of waiters on the tables, as bribes to help satisfy the appetites of men.

HOTELS ON THE EUROPEAN PLAN.

People generally, on arriving in New York city, at once betake themselves to the large hotels, and if they never were in the city before it is best to do so, in order to avoid sharpers. But there is no necessity of a man of limited means remaining there for days or weeks at high prices, when he can have just as good accommodations for from two to three dollars per day. At the present time there are in New York a large number of houses kept on the European plan, such as Lovejoy's, Landreth House, Crook's, and dozens of others we could name and know well. At any one of these rooms can be easily procured at rates ranging from seventy-five cents to one dollar and fifty cents per day, some of them equal to any in the first class hotels, and nearly all of them superior to the pigeon coops referred to above. At the restaurants of these rooms a breakfast of boiled eggs, steak or chops, coffee, rolls, butter, buckwheat cakes and corn bread, will cost but forty or fifty cents, and a nice dinner—not as full of varieties as the first class hotels get up—but done up in a good style, at a cost of not over seventy-five cents or a dollar. Besides, if you do not want to eat, you have not got to pay for a meal you don't get, as you have to do at the regular hotels.

CHEAP BOARDING.

A man can live in New York at the present time very cheap, and every one has an opportunity to live just according to his means. A very nice furnished room can be obtained easily at from two-fifty to three dollars per week, and a great many as low as two dollars per week. The rooms at the higher figures are well furnished and well attended. Restaurants of all grades of prices are to be found on nearly every square. If a man has only ten cents in his pocket, he can go and get a large bowl of good coffee, hot rolls and butter for that amount. If he has fifteen cents he can have potatoes and some other dish with it. These prices are at the lowest priced restaurants, but the things are just as well got up as at the higher priced ones; and, indeed, unless we go to the Delmonico class, there is not a great difference between any of them in charges. Rents are also cheap. A small family can readily secure three or four rooms in a nice house and respectable neighborhood at ten or twelve dollars per month.

AMUSEMENTS.

At Niblo's theater, the Black Crook has entered upon its second year, and yet every night the house is crowded. To get a good seat you must buy a ticket on the streets from the speculators, who have all the choice seats bought up for a week ahead. These speculators make fifty cents on each orchestra chair they sell, and they manage to dispose of all the seats for which they hold tickets. At present there are forty-eight girls, dressed in fairy costume, often to be seen on the stage at one time. Forrest is playing to crowded houses, and Ristori has opened out in Brooklyn. All the theaters and places of amusement are in full blast, and all well filled.

VISITING MERCHANTS AND BUSINESS.

The majority of the visitors at present in the city are merchants from every section of the Union. They come here to buy, and they do buy, but their purchases are very small in the amount. On going around among business men, we received the same kind of answers in regard to trade that we are accustomed to receive in Pittsburgh. The only business in which there is any appearance of life is the dry goods trade, and this branch cannot be called active by any means. The aggregate of transactions falls far behind the amounts at the same period for years past, and yet the fall season is in its height, and business must soon begin to drop off. A great many merchants are disposed to sell regardless of cost in order to raise money. We never saw goods offered so cheap at retail as at present. Go to any of the retail stores up the Bowery, and a purchase can be made at about any price you are disposed to offer, and there never was a better assortment and variety from which to choose. How the dealers are going to hold out retailing at the prices they do is a question which we opine they could not answer themselves. Stewart's up town store is an exception to the cry of dullness, as at any time from ten A. M. to four P. M., the street for squares is lined with standing carriages, and not less than three hundred aristocratic customers are in waiting all the time.

NEW YORK MORALS.

The morals of this old Gotham do not appear to be improving any. The liquor saloons, and they are next to numberless, are crowded all the day and to twelve o'clock at night. And yet there seems to be very little disturbance of the peace, at least compared with the number of drinking houses and amount of drinking. But this is no doubt owing to the effective police system. In the city of New York, at the present time, a policeman, vested with authority, and who will do his duty faithfully, and without fear, can be found in any section of the city, in less than half a minute, either in the day time or in the night. And such a fine looking set of well made men can be found nowhere, unless it be in the regular army. They do their duty when called without shirking. If the city of Pittsburgh was supplied with policemen, and a police system like New York, we would hardly ever have to record a robbery, a burglary, a murder or an outrage on women, such as we have been accustomed to hear so often during the last few months. Perhaps, if consolidation is agreed upon, we shall then have an effective police. But we were speaking of morals. A short stroll along Broadway from Canal to the St. Nicholas Hotel, will convince one in a short time that there are still a large number of demireps living. Several hundred can be counted passing to and fro on Broadway in above space, in less than an hour, all the time from dark to twelve o'clock. But they pass along quietly, for the police keep too close a watch on them, and as long as they are orderly are not interfered with. But why should they be interfered with, when such a disgusting sight is nightly allowed, as Mlle Bonfanti in her dark gauze—no dress at all—in the Black Crook at Niblo's Theater, attended nightly by the most fashionable ladies and gentlemen of the land? She might just as well appear nude, as to appear as she does, and yet the house is scarcely large enough to hold the audiences which nightly assemble to look at her and her frail sisters, some forty-eight in number, every one exhibiting the appearance and looks (with the exception of dress) of the pavement nymphs who nightly walk by the St. Nicholas Hotel, on Broadway.

Temperance Meeting at Canonsburg.

Special Correspondence of Pittsburgh Commercial.

CANONSBURG, September 28, 1867.

The friends of temperance will be interested to learn that the citizens of Canonsburg are earnestly engaged in doing their part to promote the great reform now making such rapid progress throughout the country. They see clearly the importance of the issue, and are working with an energy that will insure success. A few months ago, a lodge of the Good Templars was established at this place, and since the time of their organization they have been gaining in public favor, and increasing in strength and usefulness. The beneficial influence exerted by them upon the community is too apparent to escape observation. Under their auspices, a temperance meeting was held at the college on Friday evening, September 27. The hall was filled to its utmost capacity. The Rev. Dr. Edwards was called to the chair, and the Rev. F. A. Collier appointed Secretary. The following gentlemen were chosen Vice Presidents: Rev. Dr. Wm. Smith, James McCullough, Esq., Craig Ritchie, Esq., John Moore, Esq., Mr. H. C. Gleason, Mr. J. V. Cook, and Mr. John Brady, Sr. The exercises were opened with a temperance song, after which Dr. Edwards offered prayer, and then proceeded to make a few appropriate remarks, assuring the people that the good cause commanded his sympathy and support. Before taking his seat, the Doctor introduced the orator of the occasion, the Rev. W. B. Watkins, of Washington, who delivered an able and eloquent address, which was listened to with fixed attention.

At the conclusion of the lecture, Craig Ritchie, Esq., offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we do most cordially approve of and indorse the action of Hon. Judge Acheson and his worthy Associates in refusing to license persons to sell intoxicating liquors; and that we pledge ourselves, in all honorable ways, to support them in the noble s and which they have taken upon this all-important question.

Resolved, That the beneficial effects of withholding license are already manifest in the increase of temperance and good order in this community.

After a hearty vote of thanks had been given to Mr. Watkins, and another song had been sung by the choir, the benediction was pronounced, and the large audience retired, feeling more determined than ever to exert themselves to dethrone King Alcohol. C.

THOM'S RUN OIL REGION.

The Producing Territory Nearest Pittsburgh---Number and Yield of Wells---The A. V. R. R. Extension.

Special Correspondence of Pittsburgh Commercial.

PARKER'S LANDING, September 28, 1867.

Here I am in Thom's Run Oil Region. It is only eighty-two miles from Pittsburgh, on the Allegheny river, and about half a mile below the mouth of the Clarion. It is the best oil region nearest to Pittsburgh, and therefore deserves special notice. I give below the number and daily product of the wells at this place:

	Barrels.
Pittsburgh and Thom's Run Oil Co	17
Clarion and Allegheny Oil Co	16
Hovey Well	8
Shirland Well	7
Karnes's Well	6
Sunbury Co., 2 wells	8
Total daily product	62

There is also the Fink well, producing four barrels, and the Fox well three barrels, located just above the mouth of the Clarion; one well at Bear Creek, two miles below, producing four barrels, and two wells at Brady's Bend, producing seven barrels, making a daily product of seventy-eight barrels at and near this region.

The low price of oil during the past summer has had the effect of retarding developments in this vicinity; but the Pittsburgh and Thom's Run Oil Company have commenced to bore a second well, which is now fifty feet deep; the Clarion and Allegheny Company have their second well down 450 feet, and the Shirland Oil Company have their second well fully bored and ready for tubing.

Arrangements have also been made to put down other wells, by the owners of the lands or lessees, but the season is so far advanced that they will scarcely be commenced before next spring.

No oil has been obtained anywhere on the Allegheny river, between this place and Scrubgrass creek, a distance of twenty-five miles above; and with the exception of the two wells at Brady's Bend, there is no other wells now producing oil between this place and Pittsburgh. Some years ago there was a well near Tarentum that produced a little oil, but is now abandoned. The oil in this territory is of a clear amber color, free from sediment or impurity, and makes a No. 1 burning fluid.

The Allegheny Valley Railroad have located a station opposite the Thom's Run, and will have the road finished and in running order to these wells about the middle of November. The grading is all completed, and the the rails and cross-ties delivered at various points along the river, and part of the track is already laid. The timbers for the bridge over the Clarion river, are shaped and loaded on trucks at Brady's Bend, ready to be taken up when the track is completed to that point. The Company is also having tank oil cars built for carrying oil, and no doubt they will first be used to ship oil from this place. STAR.

THE Cleveland Herald concludes an article on the "Presidential candidates" as follows: "As matters stand to-day we believe the public voice is overwhelmingly for General Grant, and we believe justly, and judiciously so, consequently this paper favors the nomination of that soldier, subject of course to the nominating convention, and to circumstances that may hereafter control the entire question."

CITY MATTERS.

LYING ILL.—Alderman E. S. Morrow is lying ill with typhoid fever at his residence in the Eighth Ward.

TAKEN TO THE REFUGE.—The lad, J. Fletcher, who was recently convicted in the Criminal Court of horse stealing, and sentenced to the House of Refuge, was conveyed to that institution yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Stubbs.

PITTSBURGH COLORED SCHOOL BUILDING.—This building, which is located on Miller street, in the Seventh ward, is rapidly approaching completion, and the contractors, Messrs. Samuel Hastings & Co., of Allegheny, anticipated having it finished and ready for occupancy during the present season. The building is two stories high, and will be large enough to accommodate all the colored children in the city.

PRESENTATION TO JIMMY HAMILL.—A number of the friends of Jimmy Hamill, the champion oarsman, have presented him with a solid gold ring, bearing on one side the initials "J. H." and on another "C. of A." The ring also bears on its surface an enameled representation of a shell boat. The ring is heavy, of pure metal, elegantly chased and enameled, and is the handiwork of the well-known jewelers, Messrs. Duncan & Hazlett, No. 56 Fifth street.

PITTSBURGH POSTAL DELIVERY.—The following is the report of the carriers of the Pittsburgh Post-office of letters delivered and carried during the month of September, 1867: Carrier Delivery—mail letter delivery, 72,290; drop letter delivery, 6,948; paper delivery, 25,333. Collections from the Street Boxes—Mail letters, 36,277; drop letters, 2,772; papers, 1,492. Throughout the business portion of the city five collections and deliveries are made daily.

POISONED BY EATING MAY APPLE LEAVES.—Several little boys, while playing on the hill above Butcher's Run, in the Seventh ward, Allegheny, on Sunday last, were poisoned from eating the leaves of the May apple plant. One of the boys was a lad named Strenger, residing near the mouth of Butcher's Run, and another the son of officer Henry Hess, of the Allegheny day police. Both of these boys were in a dangerous condition on Sunday evening and Monday, but under skillful medical treatment and close attention, they are now slowly recovering. The other boys who had eaten of the leaves were quite sick, but their symptoms were not so alarming as in the cases of the lads named.

A SAD AFFAIR.

A Gentleman Jumps from the Third Story Window of the Mercy Hospital and Dies from the Effects of His Injuries.

Mr. A. A. Taylor, brother-in-law of Miss Ida Vernon, who was to play an engagement at the Opera House this week, jumped from a third story window of the Mercy Hospital Monday afternoon, and yesterday morning about one o'clock died from the effects of the injuries he received. It appears that he came from New York city with Miss Vernon, and while on the way here was taken seriously ill with congestion of the brain. He was taken to the St. Charles Hotel, and as he did not get better it was thought advisable to remove him to the Mercy Hospital, and he was taken there on Monday morning. In the evening about six o'clock while delirious, and during the absence of his attendant, he jumped from a third story window of the Hospital and fractured his right thigh, besides receiving internal injuries. He was picked up in an insensible condition, and died at one o'clock yesterday morning. Miss Vernon returned to New York last evening with the remains of the unfortunate man. Mr. Taylor resides in New York City, where he left his wife a few days ago.

The Nicolson Pavement.

The ordinance for the repaving of Wood street with the Nicolson pavement having passed both branches of Councils, our citizens will doubtless have a fair opportunity of testing its merits. That this pavement has some advantages over the old cobble stones is apparent at a glance. Its regularity of surface, its freedom from noise, and the ease with which animals can draw the heaviest burdens over it, are greatly in its favor. The principal point, however, is in regard to its durability. The cost is a little higher than that of the boulders, but this is not seriously urged as an objection. If it can be made to outlast the cobble stone pavements, then it is every way preferable. On this point of durability it seems now to be generally conceded that, where the work is properly done, the Nicolson pavement will outlast any other yet invented. It has been ascertained that, where the work proved unsatisfactory, the fault lay with the contractors. An instance has been cited in which the foundation timbers were laid on clay instead of gravel, and the result was that the wood soon rotted and the pavement began to give way. We mention these things as affording a hint to those who may have charge of or be interested in the work here. It cannot be tested thoroughly unless it is properly constructed. Let there be no shirking or dodging on the part of the contractors. Wood street perhaps sustains as much heavy hauling as any other thoroughfare in the city, as wagons loaded with iron nails, and other heavy materials, are constantly passing by this route to and from the warehouses on Water street, and the steamers at the landing. If the pavement will stand the wear and tear on Wood street, there need be no hesitation about adopting it on any other thoroughfare. The ordinance providing for its construction on Fifth street passed the Common Council with but one dissenting vote, but it was not taken up in Select Council. There is time enough, however, to have this matter attended to at the next meeting; or, if necessary, a special meeting could be called for the purpose of disposing of it. The great majority of the members are in favor of giving the pavement a fair trial, and we commend their good sense and judgment in this respect. We cannot perceive wherein any one is likely to suffer by the experiment, since the two streets mentioned have been so cut up for the new sewers as to render repaving necessary. There seems no better opportunity for introducing the improvement, and we hope to see both Wood and Fifth streets repaved upon the Nicolson plan before the winter sets in.

Base Ball.

GAME AT OAKLAND.

A match game of base ball was played yesterday afternoon at Oakland, between the Pioneer B. B. Club and "Our Muffin Nine," both of this city. The game was an exceedingly interesting one, and resulted in an easy victory for the Pioneer, who scored seventy runs to "Our Muffin Nine's" fourteen.

MATCH IN LAWRENCEVILLE.

The Lawrence Club, of Lawrenceville, and the Rockdale, of Allegheny, played a match game on the grounds of the former, on Saturday afternoon. The game resulted in the success of the Lawrencevillians, the score standing: Lawrence, 46 runs; Rockdale, 17.

EXCITING GAME IN ALLEGHENY.

An exciting game came off on the West Commons, Allegheny, on Saturday afternoon, between the Duquesne and Continental Clubs, both of that city, which resulted in the triumph of the Duquesne boys, who made twenty-seven runs to their opponent's sixteen.

"MUFFIN" CHALLENGE.

The "Muffin Nine" of the Allegheny Base Ball Club have challenged the "Muffers" of the Enterprise Club to play another match game "for the championship of the world." The "champions" will no doubt accept the challenge.

DEATH OF A GALLANT SOLDIER.—A telegraphic dispatch was received yesterday announcing the fact that Capt. S. Watson Black died on Sunday last, at Hempstead, Texas. Capt. Black was the only son of the lamented Col. Samuel W. Black, who was killed at the battle of Gaines' Mill, June 27, 1862. He was appointed to a Lieutenancy in the Regular Army about three years since, and although quite young when he entered the service, rose to the position of Captain by gallant and meritorious conduct. His numerous relatives and friends in this city deeply regret his early demise.

GRAND RALLIES TO-NIGHT.—A mass meeting of the Republicans of the northern portion of the county will be held this evening at Clinton, Findley township, commencing at half past six o'clock. Among the speakers who will be present and address the meeting, are Major Russell Errett, Thomas Howard, Esq., and Wm. C. Moreland, Esq.

A grand Republican rally will also be held to night at Bakerstown. The meeting will be addressed by Major A. M. Brown, R. A. Cameron, Esq., H. C. Mackrell, Esq., and others.

PEDESTRIANISM.—A foot race took place on the Monongahela Suspension Bridge, on Monday evening, between Messrs. Kelly and Foley, for a purse of fifty dollars. The distance run was one hundred yards, and the race was won by Foley.

A foot race for a purse of five hundred dollars, distance one hundred and fifty yards, will take place at Oakland Park on Saturday afternoon next, between Johnny Newell, of this city, the champion pedestrian of Western Pennsylvania, and Mr. Kendrick, a noted pedestrian from Chicago, Illinois.

ALARM OF FIRE.—The alarm of fire yesterday morning was occasioned by the renewal of the fire in the ruins of Galwey's Malt House, on Penn street. The fire was extinguished before any further damage had been done.

Public Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—"Nobody's Daughter" was performed a second time last evening, Miss Virginia Howard taking the part of the heroine, owing to the sad bereavement occurring to Miss Ida Vernon, alluded to elsewhere. Those of our readers who admire an interesting play well performed, will miss a rare treat if they do not see "Nobody's Daughter" performed at the Opera House.

THEATER.—The minstrels continue to perform to good audiences, which their meritorious performances deserve.

The Daily Commercial

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1867.

THE COMMERCIAL is the largest daily paper in the State, and gives daily one-fourth more reading than any other paper in Pittsburgh. It is the only Pittsburgh paper that uses the telegraph liberally, gives full market reports, and all the news of the day.

OUR CANDIDATE.

Hon. Henry W. Williams.

[From the Pittsburgh Post, June 28.]

WORTHY CANDIDATES.

"The nomination of Henry W. Williams as a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, is a good one. He was the best man named before the Republican Convention, and possesses legal and moral qualifications for the responsible position to which he has been nominated. Both parties have now presented their candidates. An important duty has been faithfully discharged by the respective conventions. The campaign may now be conducted without personal aspersions, and decided upon the principles of the two great parties. This is as it should be."

[From the Pittsburgh Post, August 19.]

If the notice of Judge Williams's nomination which appeared in the "Post" at the time, and now kept standing at the head of the Republican papers, is intended as a rebuke for any supposed inconsistency since, it fails in its purpose. We have nothing to take back or modify. Of Judge Williams's private or legal reputation we have nothing but words of praise, and however it may suit some pugnacious and heady politicians, we cannot bring ourselves to view personal assaults as either wise or politic. The Democracy plants itself upon principle and deals with facts, and discusses the public and official acts of candidates.

THE latest reports from Washington concerning the trial of JEFFERSON DAVIS are of a sort calculated to prepare the public mind for the quashing of the indictment. The Government is not going to be ready, and of course is not sure that it ever will be. And this is the way treason is to be made odious and rebels punished—under ANDREW JOHNSON.

MR. JOHNSON is represented to be "particularly desirous" of carrying Pennsylvania for the Democrats. No doubt of it. He would then feel strengthened to go ahead and smash things in the interest of his rebel friends even worse than ever. All who feel disposed to gratify ANDREW JOHNSON in this little thing will signify the same by voting—"often and early"—the clean Democratic ticket.

WE hear from Washington that Mr. JOHNSON is "prepared to take his stand on the Constitution," and from Baltimore we learn that the rebels are preparing to back him up. To this end, Gen. GRANT having refused to furnish the rebel Maryland militia with artillery, Gov. SWANN has caused to be purchased several batteries of 12-pound Napoleons, which have been divided between three companies, whose officers were all in the rebel army. Things are working, and all that is wanted is a Democratic victory in Pennsylvania.

THE Post continues to be deeply exercised about "negro domination." Nothing is more natural. The enfranchisement of the negro in the South was brought about mainly by the fact that otherwise the unreconstructed rebels would dominate and proceed to restore slavery. This has been forever prevented, and it is precisely this that troubles the Post. Of course, as between loyal negroes and rebel whites, it prefers the latter. It is loyalty that dominates in the South through the enfranchisement of negroes. So far as heard from nearly everybody who was on the side of the rebels throughout the rebellion, make use of the ever ready and perfectly convincing argument of nigger! nigger! Of such the Post is a very proper organ.

THE small vote cast in Louisiana on the question of holding the convention for framing a State constitution, is probably attributable mainly to the state of things arising from the yellow fever scourge. From the fact that nearly all the votes cast were in favor of holding the convention, there would appear to be no ground whatever for the inference that the colored population were indifferent to the question involved; if there was indifference the white population manifested it to a greater extent than the colored. We expect to hear the Democrats cry out that the blacks, by manifesting indifference, proved at the outset unfit for the ballot; but we suspect the fact will be made to appear that they were nearly the only ones whom even the dreadful scourge could prevent from faithfully performing their duty.

THE Chicago Times says, "the best way to pay the national debt would be, to apply to its liquidation the amount annually stolen by the liquor and tobacco dealers." There is a better way than that proposed by the Pittsburgh Post, which is, virtually, not to pay it at all. As to the Times' plan, no objection can be raised to it, so far as the payment of the money is concerned. If the public revenues are stolen and appropriated to private use, they cannot be applied to the honest purpose, as intended by Congress, of paying the national debt. That there is a wrong done to every tax-payer, by fraud committed on the revenue, is what we have often maintained. It is a fraud also on those dealers who honestly pay the tax required by the law. But after all, taking the same strictures of the Times in their greatest extent, and even throwing the frauds on the revenue into the scale besides, the case is not so bad as it would be, both for the Government and the tax-payers, under the plan advocated by the Post.

THE REAL ISSUE.

Nothing can be more clear to the apprehension of every intelligent citizen than this, that the Republican party is in favor of having the Southern States, as speedily as practicable, brought into their normal relations with the Federal Government. It is equally clear that the hindrances arise partly from themselves and partly from their professed friends, the Democrats, with the President at their head, as chief agent. This is so manifest and yet so damaging to the prospects of the Democratic party, that it can occasion no surprise to intelligent men, to see the Democracy pretending to a disavowal of the President, or to see them endeavoring to keep the great national bearings of the State and local elections out of view. It is with this design that they say that they are not for Mr. JOHNSON, although they at the same time suggest, approve and support his procedure, and his obstructive policy. It is with the same design that they obtrude questions into the local elections, that have no legitimate connection with them.

The fact is, nevertheless, kept steadily before the loyal mind, that the restoration of the Union, the pacification of the country and the general prosperity of the people, are the objects to be secured by the triumph of Union principles in the coming election. Local interests, it is true, will be sustained and good men be placed in office by such a triumph, but beyond this decision will immediately and powerfully affect the great business of the Union and all its people. The end being the same as during the war, the parties are substantially the same, circumstantially the contest differs but in two or three respects. It is carried on by peaceful means and not by the destructive power of war; a large number of the Southern people, white as well as black, are enlisted on the side of a just and speedy settlement of the Union; and, we are sorry to add as the third circumstance of difference, the highest executive office of the nation is not the true, faithful, patriotic LINCOLN, but ANDREW JOHNSON. But still the aims and the parties are essentially the same, and every Republican victory at the polls, as did every Union victory in battle, gives additional assurance that the grand and noble aim of patriotism will be attained.

In this aspect of the case, which is the true one, and therefore kept out of sight by the Democratic party, the coming election would be a most important one, even if the fictitious JOHN DOE and RICHARD ROE were the opposing candidates. It is the voice of the people by their votes, that gives it importance in the national point of view. The President waits to hear, not which candidate is elected, but whether the great State of Pennsylvania has changed its mind in reference to the Union, whether it is willing to bow its neck again to the old yoke, or whether it stands by the glorious decision of the war, and the patriotic action of its own representatives in Congress. Momentous results hang upon the issue. And every Republican and patriot should feel the responsibility that rests on him to vote, and to vote so that the Republic shall receive no detriment.

OUT NORTH.

The impetus that a railroad gives to business, along the line of it, is well illustrated by the Pittsburgh and Erie Road. And this, we may say, in passing, is the strong argument for a Free Railroad Law, and an equally strong one for a grand Republican victory on next Tuesday. The belt of country immediately benefited by this road would not have reached its present activity and development in half a century, had not the road been constructed. The agricultural and mineral wealth of Beaver, Lawrence and Mercer counties has been immensely enhanced by this single road. The same may be said of the Eastern counties of the Western Reserve. And by the numerous railroad connections, it affords greatly increased facilities for travel and transportation into the interior of Ohio and to the oil regions of our own State, as well as the northern section on Lake Erie and its beautiful and thriving city.

The towns of New Castle, Middlesex, Sharon, Greenville and others of less size, are lively and prosperous places. Some of them have a decidedly Pittsburgh appearance, active, dingy and noisy with puffing steam and rumbling machinery. Furnaces and coal works abound in these places and along the road between them. And where mineral resources are less plentiful, the agricultural advantages supply their place. In the town of Greenville, mercantile business appears to be in a thriving condition, becoming the rich agricultural district that surrounds it. The Lawrence county fair, held there last week, presented a most favorable view both of the products of the soil and of the people who cultivate it. The collection of both was large and highly creditable to the country. The occasion was rendered the more pleasant by the generous hospitality of the citizens, which was also extended, in unstinted measure, to the Synod of Allegheny, which, during the same week, met in the Presbyterian church of their town.

It is, of course, gratifying to know that the COMMERCIAL gives its daily and weekly greeting to so many of the intelligent people of the region referred to, and meets with so welcome a reception, not only among Republicans for its politics, but also among Democrats for its general and commercial news.

IF the Workingmen needed proof in addition to what naturally inheres with the case, to convince them that there is an arranged plan whereby those Democrats—or the majority of them—in the "labor movement," are to be brought back to the Democratic fold, the Pittsburgh Post of yesterday must have supplied it. The editor is the Democratic candidate for Senator. As such he had a part to perform. So, putting on an air of snuffle and humility at once amusing and affecting, he makes his appeal and utters his warnings. The pumpkin vines, bitten by the frost of the night previous, are nothing to the forlorn attitude in which he presents himself. We give our neighbor the credit of doing his part pretty well. He knows his men and what will bring them back—hence the snuffle and humility. Meanwhile the Democratic leaders are, in their several ways, carrying out the plan of bringing back those whom they loaned the "labor movement," to set it on its feet as an allye to the JOHNSON and SHARSWOOD cause. It will not be three days before a large majority of them will be at home again in the ranks of the Democracy, and the Republicans left alone, just enough to illustrate a miserable failure.

We do not indulge in conjecture. We speak not from inference. On the day of election the number of Democrats who will be found voting the "labor movement" ticket will be few indeed. Hundreds attend the meetings of the workingmen and cheer loudly, who, before the election, will glide back to the places which they left solely to encourage a movement which they hoped, by damaging the prospect of the Republicans, would improve that of the Democrats. We give the workingmen generally credit for too much sagacity to suppose that they do not even now detect indications of this. The only hope of the Democratic leaders—and it is a very faint one—is that the Republican party here will be so weakened by some thousands of Republicans going for the labor ticket, the Democratic party, reinforced by the return of those Democrats who went into the movement to give it an impetus, will create—if not a chance of success, at least a seeming Democratic gain.

THE London Times sees some things in our country very clearly from its trans-Atlantic post of observation. It has had its eyes turned on Mr. JOHNSON and says, "he still acts as though the people were enthusiastically with him, and as if the elections of last autumn had given him a majority." And in confirmation of its opinion of Mr. JOHNSON's obstinate and pugnacious instincts, impelling him to be a belligerent to the last, the Times refers to his relations with Congress, and says, "that body separates from time to time after dealing what it believes to be a last effectual blow at the occupant of the White House, but it has scarcely gone home before the President is up again, undoing its work and sending another blast of defiance after them." Yes, this is very true. And this is what we are ashamed of and what we complain of in Mr. JOHNSON—a total disregard for the representatives of the people, the makers of the laws which he, as well as the humblest citizen, is bound to obey. His conduct, in this respect, does not add much to our respectability, as a nation, among the nations of the world.

THE Republicans of Philadelphia are fairly aroused and well at work. Their meeting on Saturday night last was a very large and telling one. Speaking of it and the prospect the North American says:

"If ever for a moment there was an apprehension that Omnipotence was about to permit the success of the Johnson party in this city and State at the coming election, that apprehension was wholly and happily relieved by the events of the last three secular days, and especially by the simultaneous outpouring of the loyal people in Philadelphia, in various places last Saturday night."

A SUIT has been commenced in the Circuit Court of St. Louis county, Missouri, to test the constitutionality of the income tax. The suit will be transferred to the United States District Court at once, and much interest is felt in the proceeding.

ON the great Russian Railroad operated by the Winans, of Baltimore, the cars are two stories high—the upper story being for sleeping at night. The few bridges on the line, which are of great height, admit of this, and the plan works well. The operators of the road are principally Americans.

IN a recent conversation with Lucy Stone Mr. Chase said: "Be free to say from me that I think there will be no end to the good that will come by woman's suffrage, on the elected, on elections, on government, and on woman herself. I have said this in public and private for many years. I am glad that an effort is making in Kansas to accomplish it, and I shall rejoice when the elective franchise shall be as free to women as it is now to men. I think, too, that this will be at no distant day."

THE Springfield Republican predicts the issue of the contest in Massachusetts for the substitution of a license for the prohibitory system in regard to the sale of liquors, will be a new experiment with the license system. That paper proposes that the system should be "uniform throughout the whole Commonwealth, and directed by a State board of license, which should, under the law, be alike legislative, judicial and executive. It should have no power to license a single bar in the whole State. Its licenses should be confined to three classes: to druggists, for sales as medicine; to grocers, for domestic and family purposes; to victuallers and taverners, for sale to their customers at the eating tables or in their private rooms." It further proposes that the charges for such licenses should be "such sums as would pay all the expenses of the law, and a large share if not the whole of the reformatory and charitable expenditures of the Commonwealth."

Paying Off the National Debt.

Senator Morton, of Indiana, in a speech in Ohio, spoke in regard to paying the National debt as follows: A word or two in reference to paying this national debt. We are going to pay it just as we contracted to pay it. I am not in favor of taxing the people to pay off what is not yet due. I am in favor of posterity paying some of it. Let us pay the interest, and many little debts falling due for bounties and various other purposes. Some of this debt will come upon the next generation; they can pay it. This generation has done its part in putting down the rebellion, and bearing the burdens, and we still have large State taxes and county taxes growing out of the war. Let us meet all the obligations falling due against us, and if we have anything more to pay, we will pay it on the principal. But I say, levy no tax to pay off principal for ten years, and in ten years from this time, when we have peace, and reconstruction, and growth, and population, we can pay them much more easily. When these men talk of paying off the debt at once by an issue of greenbacks, they simply mean to destroy the credit of the Government.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer, assuming to be well informed, declares that if Congress attempts to impeach Andrew Johnson he will resist with all the forces at his command.

Ex-Senator R. M. T. Hunter thinks the whites in Virginia will be strong enough in the coming election to secure the choice of white men for all the principal offices.

THE CHOLERA.

IMPORTANT LETTER FROM

Dr. JAS. D. BUTTON,

PHYSICIAN TO THE N. Y. STATE PRISON, AT AUBURN, N. Y.

AUBURN, September 27, 1856.

DEAR SIR—Your letter of the 18th inst., asking what my experience had been in the use of

Fosgate's Anodyne Cordial,

In the Premonitory Diarrhœa of Asiatic Cholera, came duly to hand.

In reply, I am pleased to say, that having used the article more or less for thirty years, in my own family and in my practice, thus testing its virtues, I administered it freely when Cholera appeared, for the Diarrhœa which almost always precedes that disease. In the year 1849, the disease breaking out suddenly in my locality, a few cases terminated fatally within several hours after the attack, and this preceding diarrhœa was then almost universal. But, under my observation, no one remedy was more effective in completely controlling it than this nor, within my knowledge, when other precautions were observed, did it fail.

Respectfully, yours,

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

MR. HOFF

AND THE

NEW YORK

ACADEMY OF MEDICINE.

EDITORS N. Y. MEDICAL JOURNAL:

DEAR SIRS—I have read with great regret, in your August issue, the preamble and resolutions, relating TO ME PERSONALLY as well as to my

MALT EXTRACT

BEVERAGE OF HEALTH,

PASSED BY THE

N. Y. ACADEMY OF MEDICINE,

AT A RECENT MEETING.

It is with still greater regret that I feel myself under the necessity of replying to this enlightened body; but as these preamble and resolutions tend to create the impression that I have committed a falsification when alluding to the Academy, and publishing the report made TO this Institution BY the special committee of three, I have overcome my repugnance, and have resolved to justify my action.

I therefore beg to hand you my statement of the affair, with the request that you will be kind enough to insert it in your next number, with this letter, under the above heading, and in the same style and place as you published the resolutions of the Academy.

I am, dear Sirs, yours very respectfully,

LEOPOLD HOFF.

New York, August 24, 1867.

Statement and Examination of the Preamble and Resolutions of the New York Academy of Medicine, relating to Hoff's Malt Extract Beverage of Health.

I. "Whereas, L. Hoff, proprietor or agent of the Hoff's Malt Extract, is issuing publications through the secular papers, and by means of pamphlets and circulars professing to quote favorable opinions expressed in a report of a committee of the Academy."

It is true that I issued publications, pamphlets and circulars professing to quote favorable opinions expressed in the report (not in a report) of the committee (not of a committee) of the Academy. Soon after my arrival in this country, the President of the New York Academy of Medicine, at his own suggestion, appointed a committee to examine the properties of my preparation. Said committee consisted of three eminent physicians, viz: Dr. J. H. Griscom (chairman), Dr. H. D. Bulkley, and Dr. E. Krakowitzer. In February last I was invited to assist at a meeting of the committee, held at No. 42 East Twenty-ninth street. The committee were all present; the chairman interrogated me as to the mode of preparation, etc., of the Malt Extract. After having given all the explanations required by the various members, who were much pleased by the compound of my Malt Extract Beverage of Health, I took my departure. On the 6th of February the next regular meeting of the Academy was held, and being desirous of learning the report of the committee, I very naturally addressed the chairman, in order to obtain, if possible, the desired information. I received from him the following answer, which I published word for word in my circular issued in March last to the medical profession in this city:

[Document received from the Chairman of the Committee.]

NEW YORK, February 12th, 1867.

MR. HOFF—Dear Sir: In reply to your inquiry as to the action taken by the Academy of Medicine in reference to the Extract of Malt, which was submitted to it for examination some weeks since, I have to inform you that the committee of three to whom it was referred with directions to report upon it, took the matter into careful consideration, and on the 6th instant a majority of the committee presented a report thereon, of which the following is an extract:

"The Committee have ascertained to what they consider a sufficient extent the ingredients of the article, and also its mode of preparation, and they have reason to believe that it differs in some marked particulars from the usual preparations of Malt, known under the names of Beer, Ale, and Porter, and they believe it calculated to act as a mild tonic, and to a certain extent as a nutrient, in some cases in which the ordinary malt liquors might not be found to agree, especially in consequence of the moderate quantity of alcohol it contains in comparison with them, and they feel justified in recommending it to the profession for trial in appropriate cases."

On presenting the report, the Academy, though perceiving no objection whatever to the sentiment above quoted, deemed it injudicious for a purely scientific body to make a public declaration of opinion on a matter presented to it for a merely business purpose, and hence declined to adopt the report officially.

During the discussion on the subject several members acknowledged a favorable experience with the article, and expressed their full concurrence in the opinion above quoted from the report—the objection to its adoption being based on purely ethical grounds.

Respectfully yours,

[Signed] JOHN H. GRISCOM.

II "And, whereas, the said Hoff is widely circulating a letter purporting to have been written by a Fellow of the Academy."

IT IS TRUE that I have been, and am still circulating a letter written by a Fellow of the Academy. It is THE LETTER (contained above) ADDRESSED TO ME BY THE CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE APPOINTED BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE ACADEMY.

III. "And, whereas, the publications of said Hoff are so adroitly and designedly worded as to impress the mind of the reader with the belief that the Academy has indorsed his nostrum, and has thus apparently compromised its dignity and professional standing."

In reply to this charge, I can only say that whenever I mentioned the Academy, it was NOT WITHOUT STATING that a FAVORABLE report has been MADE TO IT. This was my ONLY allusion to THIS institution, and I do not think that I have ever "designedly worded" my publications otherwise, as I took SPECIAL CARE to state that the REPORT ADOPTED BY THE COMMITTEE has been PRESENTED TO the Academy, and not that the report had been ISSUED BY the Academy, being fully satisfied with this high distinction and the TESTIMONIALS from several prominent MEMBERS of the Academy, which place my preparation, according to my humble opinion, far above all nostrums.

As proof of my statements, I would most respectfully refer to any of my publications or circulars issued up to this date.

HAVING EXAMINED the preamble and made MY statement, I quote the resolutions without further analysis, LEAVING IT TO THE INTELLIGENT READER TO JUDGE OF THE TRUE MERITS OF THE CASE.

"Resolved, That the New York Academy of Medicine does hereby proclaim and declare that it has not expressed any opinion in regard to 'Hoff's Malt Extract,' and that any and every use of its name in recommending said Extract is unauthorized by the Academy."

As regards the second and last resolution,

"That a copy of the above preamble and resolutions be sent to the medical journals of this city, and that the medical journals throughout the country be requested to copy the same, in justice to the Academy and the profession,"

I beg leave to request all medical journals in the United States, especially THOSE which have published the preamble and resolutions of the Academy, to insert in their next number MY statement, in justice to me, to the chairman and members of the committee, and to the reputation of my preparation among the profession.

LEOPOLD HOFF.

NEW YORK August, 1867.

Acceptance has been refused, as the writers do not consider themselves responsible for the resolutions of the Academy.

The Daily Commercial

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

The revelations of the Paris Exposition relative to the superiority of foreign over English manufactures have caused much excitement among all reflecting Englishmen. The British manufacturers have been beaten in their own departments, and notably in that of machinery, upon which they fondly prided themselves. There is now a loud clamor for scientific schools, and many employers are writing letters to the papers urging workingmen to visit the Exposition. Cheap trains are being run, and one employer (Bennett, of watchmaking fame), advises workingmen to pawn their watches and go to Paris. All this will do no good unless the present trades unions be better regulated.

The Memphis Avalanche says: "The secret of Raphael Semmes's retirement from the editorial chair of the Memphis Bulletin was a contemplated change in the political course of the Bulletin—that in fact it intended returning to its old love, and be Radical enough to draw official patronage from the Post. The Bulletin of Wednesday certainly developes an astonishing change of sentiment, but in another direction. Its leader is an unstinted eulogy of Andrew Johnson.

A remarkable discovery is reported in Italy, by which two persons may converse by telegraph, recognizing even the sound of each other's voice. There was something like it here some years ago, between New York and Boston, but it was given up on account of the New York operator's breath smelling so bad of gin.

The Macon Telegraph says: "The attention of the public, and especially the planters, has been directed of late to a strange plant that has made its appearance since the close of the war. It appears to be a dwarf clover, and has spread rapidly throughout this State, and it is said the entire Southern States. It is very thick set, covering the earth, as it were, with a beautiful carpet of green. It is much relished by cattle, and is a complete exterminator of Bermuda, joint, sedge, and other grasses. In Middle Georgia it is very abundant and attracting much attention. It was not seen before the war, and where it came from is a subject of interesting inquiry among planters and botanists."

Private letters from Texas reveal a terrible condition of destitution and suffering from the ravages of the yellow fever. On the 14th inst. there were over five hundred cases in Houston alone, and large numbers are dying from want of nurses and care.

The recent failure of the tea concern of Gill, Gillett & Noyes is another instance of the precarious nature of New York trade. This house has been in operation for fifteen years, and its profits during the war were immense, perhaps not less than $100,000 per year; and yet the fluctuations of speculation have not only swept these away, but landed the concern in bankruptcy.

PERSONAL.

—The story goes that Mr. Greeley was perplexed and astonished to receive no answer to a note to Mrs. Yelverton, which he signed in his cabalistic manner with his initials "H. G." After much tribulation a personal interview was secured, and it then became manifest that the lady had been able to make out of the signature only "109."

—The wife of Cole, the assassin of Hiscock, is living at Truemansburgh, in New York, and is not insane, as was recently reported.

—The Greek and Turkish Ministers find themselves as thoroughly opposed to each other at Washington as their respective nations are. On the arrival of the Greek Minister, he found sympathy among the Republicans, and heartily espouses their cause. In less than twenty-four hours after his arrival, Mr. Blacque, the Turkish Minister, learned this, and at once declared for Mr. Johnson and the Copperheads.

—A Kankakee, Ill., correspondent of the Chicago Times says that a spurious English Lord, rejoicing in the name of Walker, has been deceiving the people of that vicinity. He pretended to have received a legacy of nearly $700,000, borrowed money on the strength of it, patronized and was patronized by religious people, paid in promises $5,000 for the erection of a church; gave in the same way $30,000 to the Methodist Seminary at Evanton, and $15,000 to the Aurora Institute. He was finally discovered to be a swindler and a rascal, and a warrant issued for his arrest. He has been lodged in jail in default of bail in New York.

—The first man to introduce the sixpenny plate of beef, with potato and piece of bread, made a great fortune. This was Holt, who built Holt's Hotel, which in its day was the largest in the city. Afterward Gosling made a fortune in the same manner, and the two brothers Sweeney, each carrying on a different establishment, also got rich, besides having the satisfaction of benefitting mankind. Have we no Holts or Goslings in Pittsburgh?

WESTERN ITEMS.

A terrible drought is prevailing throughout Missouri and Central Illinois.

The citizens of Martinsville, (Indiana) have succeeded in raising the $30,000 required to locate the Vincennes Railroad through that place and up the east side of White river.

An excursion party is being formed in Helena, Montana, to visit the falls of the Yellowstone, where it is said the whole volume of the river is precipitated over a precipice sixteen hundred feet high, and loses itself in a lake twenty-five or thirty miles in circumference, which contains an island of several hundred acres area, covered with boiling springs.

The Chicago Journal says: We learn from parties who were in St. Louis last week that the cholera has been prevailing there recently to an alarming extent, but is now subsiding in consequence of the change in the weather. On Thursday last sixty-six cases and thirty-three deaths were reported. The local papers make no mention of the existence of the disease.

In the central part of Illinois there has been no rain for many weeks. The consequence is one of the most serious drouths that has ever been known there. The cisterns have all dried up, and many of the wells have given out. There is much suffering in some localities in consequence.

On the night of the 23d instant, the safe of Messrs. Leach & Bates, of Traverse City, Michigan, was robbed of $4,000 belonging to the United States, and $4,000 belonging to other owners. No clue to the robbers has yet been got hold of.

☞ IN HOC SIGNO VINCES! HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT BEVERAGE OF HEALTH.
NEW YORK, February 12, 1866.
MR. LEOPOLD HOFF, 542 Broadway, N. Y.—DEAR SIR:—In reply to your inquiry as to the action taken by the Academy of Medicine in reference to Hoff's Extract of Malt, which was submitted to it for examination some weeks since, I have to inform you that the Committee of Three to whom it was referred, with directions to report upon it, took the matters into careful consideration, and, on the 6th inst., a majority of the Committee presented a report thereon, of which the following is an extract:
(This letter and the following report are signed by the Chairman of the Committee, Dr. John H. Griscom.)
Report of the New York Academy of Medicine.
"The Committee have ascertained to what they consider a sufficient extent, the ingredients of the article, and also its Mode of Preparation, and they have reason to believe that it differs in some marked particulars from the usual preparations of malt known under the name of Beer, Ale, and Porter, and they believe calculated to act as a mild tonic, and to a certain extent as a nutriment in some cases, in which the ordinary malt liquors might not be found to agree, especially in consequence of the moderate quantity of alcohol it contains in comparison with them, and they feel justified in recommending it to the profession for trial in appropriate cases."
Sold at Druggists and Grocers. Price $6 50 per dozen, or 60 cents per single bottle. FR. SPONHOLTZ, Sole Agent, at Graff & Reiter's, 215 Liberty street. Also C. F. BAUMAN, Allegheny City, and A. KOCH, Birmingham. eod

AUCTION SALES.

ELEGANT MANSION & GROUNDS AND FINE SUBURBAN SITES, IN LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.
TUESDAY EVENING, Oct. 8th. AT EIGHT O'CLOCK,
Will be sold on Second floor of Commercial Sales Rooms, 106 Smithfield street, that magnificent suburban seat in Liberty township, on Pennsylvania avenue, occupied by Edward Rahm, Esq., comprising 13 Acres and 20 Perches, under best ornamental cultivation, with fine avenue leading from the public road; the grounds improved with beautifully laid out walks, a delightful grove of forest trees, and well supplied with never failing springs of pure water. The Mansion is very commodious, and of elegant modern style, wide halls and grand stairway, rooms and halls finished in most superb manner, with heavy stucco cornices, marble mantels, &c., warmed also by heating furnace, gas and hot and cold water throughout. This model mansion is finished all through in the most superior manner, comprising every elegance, comfort and convenience, and all in the best order. Its tower commands an extensive and magnificent view of the East Liberty valley. The supply of water comes from an enclosed, stone-built reservoir for the springs, conveying it to the upper story. The outbuildings are of a tasteful and complete character, all substantially built of brick and stone, embracing a very commodious and well finished barn, stable and tenant house in one; wash house, drying house, and coal house in one; green house, grapery, fruit house, ice and cooling house, chicken and lumber house, &c. The completeness and elegance of all these improvements are equal to any in the country.
Also, 6 acres 39 perches, sub-divided from rear of the homestead, and fronting on Squirrel Hill Road, a short distance from Pennsylvania avenue, with fine orchard of every variety of the choicest fruits, a large and excellent vineyard, kitchen garden, &c.
Also, 8 acres 118 perches in rear of above, and fronting on Squirrel Hill Road, with excellent spring of water.
Those wishing are invited to view the premises. The plan can be seen at the auction rooms.
Terms of Sale—One-third cash; balance in three equal annual payments, with interest.

PICKPOCKET TRIED AND SENTENCED.

George Rodgers indicted for picking the pocket of [R]obert McClure, of Washington county, of a pocket [b]ook containing sixty dollars, was placed on trial. Rodgers, when he stole the money, was riding on one of the Penn street cars with Mr. McClure, and was detected when taking the money from Mr. McClure's pocket. The offense was committed on the 25th ult. When the case was called up the defendant plead guilty. He was sentenced to undergo an imprisonment of four years in the Western Penitentiary.

AGGRAVATED ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

James Walrod was next arraigned on a charge of aggravated assault and battery committed on the person of Adam Fear in the month of June last. The information on which the defendant was arrested was made by the wife of the prosecutor, it being alleged that Fear was unable at the time to leave his bed. The assault was committed at the prosecutor's home, Spring Garden Run, Reserve township. Several witnesses were examined by the prosecution, among them the Doctor who attended Fear. It was testified that Fear was suffering from paralysis of the tongue, occasioned by a blow on the back of the head at the base of the brain. The jury found a verdict of guilty. Sentence was deferred and the bail increased from $300 to $1,000.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

William Debacher was placed on trial for committing an assault and battery on the person of Franz Ketterle. The case was a trifling one, and grew out of a family quarrel between the parties, who reside on Troy Hill. The jury had not rendered a verdict at the adjournment of court.

SURETY OF THE PEACE.

The prosecutor tried in the above case was then tried for surety of the peace on oath of Debacher, and sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five dollars and costs.

COMMON PLEAS TRIAL LIST.

The Shaw vs. Shaw divorce trial occupied the attention of the Court yesterday, and several witnesses for the defense were heard. No facts of much importance were elicited.

The following is the Common Pleas trial list for to-day:

23. Shaw vs. Shaw.
83. Hanauer vs. Scott.
84. Stewart vs. Stewart.
85. Henry vs. Agnew, Son & Co.
86. Grundloth vs. Agnew, Son & Co.
87. O'Hare vs. Dain & Pitcairn.

UNITED STATES COURT—BANKRUPTCY BRANCH.

From a statement furnished by S. C. McCandless, Esq., Clerk of the United States District Court, it appears that during the month of September fifty-eight petitions were filed, nine of them being involuntary. Of this number each county furnished the following number: Erie, seven; Montour, three; Mercer, one; Beaver, two; Luzerne, three; Bradford, two; Juniata, one; Lycoming, two; Crawford, four; Venango, four, Warren, two; Tioga, five; Union, one; Snyder, two; Blair, three; Allegheny, six; Jefferson, two; Mifflin, one; Susquehanna, two; Columbia, two; Cameron, two.

The Powers of the District Attorney.

In yesterday's paper we noted an unpleasant little episode in the Quarter Sessions, which occurred between his Honor, Judge Sterrett, and Col. Duff, the District Attorney. What brought about the conflict of opinion we are not able to state, but it appears that the Judge desired the State's Attorney to take up a certain case, which he declined to do. The Court insisted that the case should be tried, and tried it was. The District Attorney, however, declined to join issue, and another counsel was assigned by the Court to represent the Commonwealth. The case was a simple assault and battery, but the principle involved is one of considerable importance. Can the Court control the action of the District Attorney in the manner indicated? Colonel Duff takes the position that no case can be called for trial except upon his motion, and that the action of the Court in this instance was illegal. He claims that it is his duty to prepare the cases for trial, and his province to fix the time for trying them; and that the Court has no right to interfere. This point was raised before Judge Grier, of the United States Court, at Williamsport, during Mr. Carnahan's first year in office as United States District Attorney. It appears that his predecessor in office, Col. Roberts, had indicted two parties for an offense against the Government, one of whom had not been arrested. The one who escaped was regarded as the worst offender of the two, and an arrangement was made not to try the party under arrest until his confederate had been arrested and tried. Mr. Carnahan took these cases as he found them, assenting to the arrangement, as he understood it. At the term of Court at Williamsport, Judge Grier called this case, and asked why it had not been tried. Mr. Carnahan stated that his predecessor in office had agreed not to call the case at present, and that he (not expecting to try it) was not ready, having no witnesses subpœned. Judge Grier, in his blunt way, remarked that the Court would recognize no agreements between counsel not in writing—that the case had been on hand for two years, and that it must be disposed of. He ordered a jury to be called, that the case might proceed. Mr. Carnahan then took direct issue with the Judge in this proceeding, alleging that the Court had no power to take up a case unless on the motion of the District Attorney; that he held his office by commission from the same power which commissioned the Court; that he was the sole judge as to the proper time for calling a case, and that he was only responsible to the Court for the manner in which he discharged his official duties. He held that, as an officer of the Government, his duties were distinct and well defined, and that he was not merely an officer of the Court. It was his duty to prepare the cases for trial, secure the attendance of witnesses, and faithfully represent the Government in the trial, and that the entire control of the cases rested with him until passed on his motion into the hearing of the Court. He argued further, that if he failed to discharge his duties properly he was liable to indictment for misdemeanor, or to have his conduct investigated, but he denied the power of the Court to force him to the trial of a cause before he was ready. Judge Grier had a jury empannelled, and was determined to try the case, but he adjourned the Court until next morning, after having notified the District Attorney that he would be prepared to hear an argument on the point which he had raised, immediately on the opening of the Court. When the Court met next morning, Judge Grier announced that he had examined the point the previous evening and found that the District Attorney was right in his views. No argument was necessary, as the books had set him right on the matter. The case was not tried until the District Attorney was ready. We do not say that the two cases are precisely parallel, but they are so nearly alike that the same law will cover them both. The District Attorney for the county bears the same relation to the State as does the United States District Attorney to the Government, and their powers and duties are similar in almost every respect. Col. Duff would therefore seem to be sustained by the decision of Judge Grier, who is no mean authority in any case. As we stated in the outset, we do not understand what peculiar circumstances induced Judge Sterrett to proceed with the case in question, regardless of the protest of the District Attorney, but he doubtless has some good ground for so doing. There is nothing serious likely to grow out of this little episode, but it has given occasion to the members of the bar to inquire how far each party be right, and the case we have just cited is to the point.

Edgewood Station, Pennsylvania Railroad.

This is the last station established, we believe, between this city and Brinton, on the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Although the newest of the stations it has made very rapid progress, and now ranks among the most important stations for local travel between this city and Turtle creek. Edgewood is located about half a mile east of Wilkinsburg, at the point where the township roads intersects the railroad. The situation is an exceedingly pleasant one, the ground being in the main level, but yet sufficiently diversified by glen and knoll to render it pleasing and attractive to the eye. When the station was first ordered by the company there were but two or three houses within access, while now there are over a dozen, some of them elegant and costly, while all are neat and comfortable. The land hereabouts was mainly owned by Messrs. James Kelly and James Swisshelm. A large tract was sold by Mr. Kelly to Mr. John Grazier, a well known business man of this city, who erected a fine residence for himself. During the past year Mr. Grazier has sold the greater portion of his ground, in suitable building lots, and it is on those that most of the improvements have been made. He recently sold his residence, with four acres of ground, to Mr. Wm. F. Gardner, Secretary of the People's Insurance Company, for a good round sum—having completed a new dwelling for himself, which he now occupies. He has now in course of erection a large and elegant residence, very handsomely located, which is offered for sale, together with other valuable property in that vicinity. Mr. Sampson Cadman, the well known brass and steam fitter, is now building a fine mansion at Edgewood, which he intends to occupy with his family. Nearly opposite is the fine new dwelling recently finished and occupied by Capt. J. H. Lightner, of the steamer Grace Putnam. John S. Love, Esq., Resident Engineer of the Pennsylvania Railroad, owns the finest and most expensive residence in the place, having built it with great care, and with good taste and judgment. The building is one of the most comfortable and attractive on the line of the road. Dr. James S. King, dentist, is the pioneer of the place, having located here before the station was established. He has a neat and comfortable homestead, and a valuable tract of land here, some of which is in the market. There are some six or eight new buildings in contemplation here and the building improvements next season will probably equal those of the present. It is one of the most flourishing of our suburban villages, and persons wishing a country home cannot find a more desirable place to locate. Property has rapidly enhanced in value here within a year or two, but it will go still higher, so that no risk can possibly be run on this score. A new station house is greatly needed at this point, and the present eight by ten watch-box cannot accommodate the dozen or more families who daily patronize the road. The Directors of the company have been petitioned on the subject, and a favorable response is expected. The ground for the station house has been donated by Mr. Kelly, and there is nothing to prevent its erection this fall if the company will only order the work to be done.

Republican County Committee—More Meetings Appointed.

The Union Republican County Executive Committee held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the office of C. C. Taylor, Esq., No. 68 Grant street. Col. Alex. Hilands presided, and C. C. Taylor, Esq., officiated as Secretary. The following additional meetings were appointed to be held during the present week:

This (Wednesday) evening, at seven o'clock—In Fourth ward, Allegheny, at the Columbia Engine House, for ward organization.

Saturday afternoon, at two o'clock—In Marshall township, at Warren's Hotel. Addresses by Gen. A. L. Pearson, Major A. M. Brown, and H. C. Mackrell, Esq.

Saturday evening, at six o'clock—In Pine township, at Graham's School House. Addresses by Gen. A. L. Pearson, W. S. Purviance, Esq., and others.

Same evening, at seven o'clock—At Hazlewood. Addresses by Gen. James S. Negley, Hon. P. C. Shannon and Wm. C. Moreland, Esq.

Same evening—In McClure township, at Hussey's Hotel. Addresses by Hon. S. A. Purviance, Thos. M. Marshall, Esq., and B. F. Lucas, Esq.

Some business of a private nature was transacted, and the Committee adjourned until this afternoon.

Hazlewood.

There is no more beautiful or attractive location on the Connellsville Railroad than Hazlewood Station. It is situated in a very pleasant valley, with a fine river view, and its growth has been very rapid of late. The citizens are considering the propriety of erecting a new school house, sufficiently commodious to accommodate the present and prospective increase in population. A flourishing school has been numbering one hundred and seventy scholars, with John Smith, Esq., as Superintendent; Wm. Wiley, Assistant; and J. Alexander, Librarian. Divine services are held regularly every Sabbath evening, ministers from the city officiating in turn. Among the more prominent citizens of the place are W. O. Hughart, Esq., the energetic President of the Connellsville Railroad Company, Messrs. Burgwin and Swartzwelder, attorneys, and Messrs. Gardiner, Anderson, Alexander, Smith, and others, all enterprising merchants and business men. The advantages of the location, socially, morally and physically, commend it to those who are seeking homes in the country.

DWELLING AND BARN BURNED.—The dwelling and barn of Mr. William B. Clark, at New Wilmington, Lawrence county, took fire on Sunday afternoon and was entirely destroyed. The barn contained the whole product of the harvest, and was also a total loss. The property was not insured.

ARRIVAL OF PRISONERS.—The Sheriff of Clearfield county arrived in this city yesterday, having in custody four prisoners—two men and two boys—who had been convicted during the recent term of Court for various offenses, and sentenced to the Penitentiary and House of Refuge.

NEW DRUG STORE.—One of the handsomest and most complete drug and description stores in the city is that just opened by James R. Clark, at 103 Fifth street, above Smithfield. Everything is new and neat, and the stock is fresh and plentiful. In perfumery and toilet articles, the assortment is of the most elegant character. All the patent medicines are to be found in abundance, and, in brief, every article usually in a first class drug store, is to be had.

PERSONAL.—Rev. A. Clarke, pastor of the Fifth Street M. P. Church, of Pittsburgh, while visiting the Muskingum Annual Conference, at Mt. Vernon, Ohio, received and accepted an invitation to preach, on Sabbath morning last, in St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church of that city. Such incidents evince the spirit of christian recognition and union. The rector of St. Paul's, is the Rev. Mr. Peate, formerly of East Liberty.

De La Grange-Brignoli To-night.

This evening Max Strakosch's grand lyric combination will perform Rossini's "Barber of Seville," at the Academy of Music. The distinguished prima donna, Madame Anna de La Grange, and the admired tenor Signor Brignoli will sing the principal roles, and will be supported by Signors Marra, Locatelli and Susini. This is a brilliant constellation of lyric stars, and the opera to-night will be admirably rendered without doubt. A large and fashionable audience will be present to welcome once again the admirable vocalist, La Grange, who, on previous visits, was ever greeted here with the utmost cordiality.

Allegheny Board of Control.

A stated meeting of the Board of Controllers of the Public Schools of Allegheny was held last evening in the Common Council Chamber.

Members present—Messrs. Brown, Boyle, Barker, Beckert, Bolen, Dunlap, Francis, Kollock, Kay, Leggate, Lockhart, McClinton, Pitcairn, Ross, Swift, Scott, Thompson, Thorn, Torrence, Young and President Clark.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

REPORTS OF LOCAL BOARDS.

The Visiting Committees of the various ward schools presented monthly reports which were read and accepted.

Mr. Chadwick reported that the Fifth Ward Board had selected Miss Agnes Gilson to take charge of a primary department in place of the German school. On motion, the appointment of the Local Board was confirmed.

THE FIFTH WARD SCHOOLS.

On motion of Mr. Francis, the salaries of the teachers in the Fifth ward schools were increased to the amount paid in the other wards.

GERMAN TEACHER IN MANCHESTER.

A remonstrance, signed by eighty-three citizens of the Fifth ward, protesting against the action of the Board in dispensing with the German department in the schools of said ward, was presented and read, when it was laid on the table by a vote of seventeen yeas to five nays.

PAYMENT OF BILLS.

On motion of Mr. Brown, warrants were authorized to be drawn on the Treasurer in favor of James Lockhart, for twenty one dollars, for cleaning Colored School House, and in favor of J. M. & Wm. Crider, for $48, for plastering said building.

CITY SUPERINTENDENT AND HIGH SCHOOL.

Mr. Brown offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a committee of five, of which the President of the Board shall be chairman, be appointed to inquire into the expediency of establishing a High School, in connection with a City Superintendent.

Mr. Brown stated that it had been proposed by a number of friends of education to establish a High School, the Principal of which should be City Superintendent of Schools. The matter was, in his opinion, worthy of consideration, and hoped the Board would pass the resolution.

Mr. Young without wishing to cast any asperations upon Mr. Douthett, the County Superintendent, was satisfied that the schools of the city had gained nothing through his examinations of teachers. He was opposed to creating such an office, as there was no necessity for it.

After a general interchange of opinion the resolution was adopted.

TEXT BOOK QUESTION AGAIN.

A statement was made that the publishers of Warren's Geographies had failed in their agreement to furnish said books, when Mr. Swift moved that the Secretary be authorized to notify them to furnish eight hundred copies at once.

Mr. Kay moved as a substitute that Mitchell's Geographies be substituted for Warren's. He stated that publishers could not be relied upon, and cited an instance where an order had not been filled for ten years. After some further remarks, Mr. Kay withdrew his substitute, and the whole matter was referred to the Committee on Text Books, with instructions to report.

A LIBERAL PROPOSITION.

Mr. Leggate stated that it was customary in some districts for the directors to furnish a library for the use of teachers, and he would propose that the Board should purchase for each teacher a membership in the Allegheny Library Association. He did not propose to insist upon the matter at present, but merely mentioned it, in order to bring it before the Board. At the next meeting, however, he would introduce a resolution to that effect.

A REMONSTRANCE.

A communication from Mr. Charles W. Benney, protesting against the action of a portion of the members of the First ward Board, in introducing into one or more rooms of the Grammar Department Willson's Readers, was read.

It was stated that the object in view was to test the comparative merits of the Willson and Osgood Readers. The same course had been pursued in other wards, and had been found to work satisfactorily.

Mr. Ross said that the Text Books adopted by the Board should be used exclusively in the schools, or the State would refuse its customary appropriation.

President Clark stated that the First Ward Board had introduced Willson's Readers merely to test it practically, and knowing that some of the other wards were using text books not adopted by the Board, had not anticipated meeting with any opposition in the matter. They were law-abiding citizens, however, and would cheerfully conform to the wish of the Board.

The matter was finally postponed for the present.

Mr. Kay offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the Committee on Text Books to inquire what Geographies are now in use in the Public Schools of Allegheny, and report at the next regular meeting.

Mr. Brown moved that the resident members of the Fifth Sixth and Seventh wards be authorized to organize local boards. Adopted.

On motion adjourned.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

[Before Mayor Morrison, of Allegheny.]

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

Wm. Meninger was arrested by the Allegheny police and taken before Mayor Morrison yesterday, charged with assault and battery, on oath of John Shellaby. In default of four hundred dollars bail, for his appearance at Court to answer, the accused was committed to jail.

[Before Alderman Butler.]

LARCENY OF A COW.

John Stampf appeared at the office of this Alderman yesterday and made an information against one John Neles, charging him with stealing a cow belonging to him. The accused was arrested and had a hearing, which resulted in his being held in one thousand dollars bail for his appearance for trial. He failed to procure the necessary security and was committed to jail.

[Before Alderman Thomas.]

RELEASED ON BAIL.

Mary McCormick who was committed to jail to answer a charge of keeping a bawdy house, was released yesterday on bail.

CROSS SUITS.

Elizabeth Harnish made information before Alderman Thomas charging Catharine Carney with surety of the peace. The prosecutrix alleges that the defendant called her low, abusive and vulgar names, and threatened to strike her with a tin bucket, and she is afraid she will do deponent some harm. A hearing was held, which resulted in the defendant being held to bail. The parties reside in Oakland township. A cross suit was then preferred by Catharine against Elizabeth for the same offense. The prosecutrix alleges that defendant did call her bad names and threatened to strike her with a tin can. The defendant was held to bail.

[Before Alderman Strain.]

ALLEGED BRUTAL ASSAULT.

Patrick Moore, a resident of Pitt township, brought suit yesterday against Robert Young, a resident of the Ninth ward; charging him with aggravated assault and battery. In his information the prosecutor alleges that on the 26th inst., the defendant attacked him, knocked him down, breaking his left jaw bone, and otherwise outrageously beating and abusing him. The accused was arrested, waived a hearing and entered bail in the sum of one thousand dollars to appear at court for trial.

ASSAULTED HIM.

Rody Corbett, a resident of Collins township, was charged with committing an assault and battery on Thomas Sheehan, of Sharpsburg. The parties had a dispute yesterday morning, and, it is alleged, Corbett assaulted Sheehan, striking him two or three times, pulling him down and then jumping upon his breast. A warrant was placed in an officer's hands for the arrest of the accused.

[Before Alderman McMasters.]

ALLEGED FALSE PRETENCES.

Thomas Byrne made an information yesterday against John Markland and Margaret Markland, charging them with false pretences. The prosecutor alleges that some months since the defendants rented a house on Watson street, in the Eighth ward, from him, they representing themselves as man and wife. It was subsequently ascertained that the defendants were not married, and that Margaret Markland used the house for illegitimate purposes. Mr. Byrne called upon Mr. Markland for the rent, which he refused to pay, stating that Margaret was not his wife. Both defendants were arrested yesterday, but the case was amicably settled by their paying the rent of the house and the costs of the case.

STRUCK WITH HER FIST.

Annie Lemon lodged complaint against Lena Black for assault and battery. The parties live in Liberty township, and Annie alleges that on the 10th ult., Lena struck her with her fist and threatened to cut her with a butcher knife. A warrant has been issued.

A Life Saved.

Last winter I was attacked with a severe cold, which settled on my lungs. My cough was very distressing and prostrating. I lost thirty pounds in weight. My stomach and liver also were alarmingly deranged. Rev. Dr. Gracey, pastor of the Fourth United Presbyterian Church, took me to Dr. Aborn, of No. 134 Smithfield street, under whose skillful treatment I am gaining my former health rapidly. Within three weeks I have gained five pounds.

ATTENTION is called to the Premium Patent Card of Jacob Weaver, Jr. & Co., No. 1 St. Clair street.

AT THE New Hampshire State Fair "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" took a First Premium over all other competitors, awarded by the judges, among whom were some of the best chemists in the country. It stands confessedly without a rival throughout New England, and wherever it has been introduced, it has driven all other preparations from the market.

A Dangerous Season.

An almost unparalleled quantity of rain has fallen during the summer. Vegetation has been wonderfully thick and rank, and, as it decays, an unusual amount of sickness may be expected unless proper means are taken to prevent it.

Fever and ague and billious remittents already prevail to an alarming extent, and as the fall advances and the malarious night fogs become heavier, the sick list is likely to increase both in the city and the country. It is, therefore, only an act of common prudence to keep the vital forces in full vigor, so that they may resist the unhealthy influences of the season. Reinforced by the tonic operation of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the system, however weak and susceptible naturally, in nine cases out of ten, successfully combat every species of atmospheric poison by which epidemics are produced.

During the month of September, October and November the difference in temperature between day and night is very great, and the chilling dews and mists of the season are the prolific causes of indigestion, cholera-morbus, dirrhœa and dysentery. Bearing this in mind, remember, also, that the Bitters not only invigorate the stomach and brace the nerves, but act specifically upon the bowels and the liver, imparting to those important organs regularity and tone. It is not reasonable to expect immunity from prevalent complaints if no precautions are taken to escape them.

Hostetter's Bitters are at once pleasant and to the taste, and the most certain of all safeguards against febrile ailments.

Sight Restored.

I applied to Dr. Aborn, at No. 134 Smithfield street, two weeks ago, with a painful disease of my left eye, being entirely deprived of its use. To-day the disease is entirely cured and the sight restored. I consider the Doctor one of the most skilful eye surgeons in the United States. His treatment is so mild and almost magically successful. Elegant Mansion and Grounds, and Fine Suburban Sites.

The magnificent property occupied by Edward Rahm, Esq., on Pennsylvania avenue, in Liberty township, and to be sold next Tuesday evening, on second floor of McIlwaine's Auction Rooms, is the most desirable opportunity which has presented itself in many years. Two tracts of 6 and 8 acres each, have been sub-divided from the 13 acres containing the improvements, and will be sold separately. The remarkable beauty of situation, and elegant surroundings of this property are so well known, that it would be surplusage to say one word in commendation. The mansion and other improvements on the 13 acres, are the most completely substantial and elegant of any in the country. See A. McIlwaine's Auction advertisement.

A New Way.

The leading brewers of our city have adopted a new way of doing business instead of the old style of crediting for thirty or sixty days. They are collecting cash on delivery. The new mode is to take effect on the first inst. We understand they are obliged to inaugurate this new system on account of the greatly increased cost of all the material used in the manufacture of the article. Be this as it may, we know that our brewers are far in the wake of the brewers of New York, Buffalo, Chicago, Philadelphia, St. Louis and Cincinnati, who have for some time back been enjoying the luxuries of the cash system. In regard to price, Pittsburgh ales are one dollar cheaper than the different grades of ale in the above mentioned cities.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

TUESDAY EVENING, October 1, 1867.

The local discount market developed no new features to-day, and continues to work close. Rates are high, and the condition of the New York money market has a stiffening influence on the market here. There are some few private capitalists that purchase good paper at about twelve.

—The weekly stock sale of McIlwaine's was rather slimly attended, on account of the small number of shares advertised to be sold this evening. The following were the transactions:

10 shares Citizens National Bank	63½
15 shares Exchange National Bank	65¾
10 shares Bank of Pittsburgh	64

The Second National was offered at par without any takers. Connellsville Railroad stock has ceased to elicit any attention. It was offered as low as 6, but received no bids. The decision as to its chartered status has not yet transpired, and there is a repressing doubt that bears heavily on the stock.

—The New York quotations received to-day by Messrs. McVay & Co. and Brady & Co. show very little change in government securities:

U. S. 6s 1881	110¼
U. S. 5-20s, 1862	113½
U. S. 5-20s, 1864	109
U. S. 5-20s, 1865, May and November	109¾
U. S. 5-20s, 1865, January and July	107½
U. S. 5-20s, 1867	107⅝
U. S. 10-40s	99⅜
December Compounds, 1864	118½
August 7-30s
June 7-30s	106⅝
July 7-30s	106⅝
Gold	143⅛

—The New York Advertiser, of yesterday evening, remarks that the occurrence of the Hebrew feast of the New Year has a tendency to check business. Frankfort dispatches report the market dull on this account, and most of the Hebrew firms are doing comparatively no business to-day.

—Railway stocks are lower and the market appears very unsettled. The report received at noon to-day, by Mr. Bryan, gives the following prices:

Michigan Southern	80⅝
Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad	79
Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad	100¼
Erie Railroad	65¾
Chicago & Northwestern Railroad	41½

—The semi-annual dividends of the Boston banks, just announced for the 1st of October, amount to $2,149,500, against $2,017,000 at the last semi-annual period in April. The changes in dividends are very few, and all of them in the direction of an increase. The State Bank, which became involved through the unauthorized action of a former cashier in some losses, at the time of the failure of Mellen, Ward & Co., and passed its April dividend, now resumes its usual position among the dividend-paying banks, paying 5 per cent. The Mount Vernon Bank, also, which passed its dividend last April in consequence of losses sustained by the failure above alluded to, now pays 6 per cent.

—S. S. Bryan, Broker in Bonds, Stocks and Real Estate, Apollo Building, Fourth street. Mortgages bought and sold. Orders for the purchase and sale of stocks and bonds executed in New York and Philadelphia, at the rates of commission current in those cities.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, WEDNESDAY, October 2, 1867.

Business yesterday took an upward turn. During the forenoon buyers held off, and appeared to be waiting for information. The stock of crude on hand being light, sales were of a similar description. Dispatches from Petroleum Center report the market quiet but firm, dealers asking $4 25. No sales are reported at that figure. The best offers were $4@4 10, with limited transactions. Oil City dispatches say the market was firm but not very active. Sales were made during the early part of the day at $3 90@4 05. Later in the day holders put up the figures to $4 25 on the cars. We did not learn of any sales at the advance. In our market the only sale that came under our notice was 1,000 bbls bulk, on the spot, at 13¾c ₩ gallon. The rates for future delivery being unsettled, we omit figures.

REFINED OIL—Owing to dispatches from the East reporting the forming of a huge corner, the market became very excited, and prices went up to the highest figure reached in this market for a long time. Holders of contracts for the last three months at low figures, felt good, big profits were staring them in the face. The good time predicted, but to which no date was fixed, appeared to be at hand. Antwerp dispatches attracted no attention. Who cared for Antwerp when oil could be sold in Philadelphia at 35c ₩ gallon, and going up. These are big times, but how long will they last? The dispatches received during the next few days will solve the question. The operations in refined in this market reached 6,000 bbls standard white, Philadelphia delivery, as follows: 500 bbls S W, Philadelphia, spot, at 35c ₩ gallon. This sale was made before the corner dispatches were received. Sales 5,000 bbls S W, Philadelphia, on the spot, 37c; 1,500 bbls, S W, Philadelphia, October, B O, at 37c; a sale of 1,000 bbls was reported, S W, Philadelphia, all this year, B O, the terms withheld. The figures were supposed to be about 40c. We heard 32c offered for standard white, free on cars at works. The market closed with all the advantages on the side of holders.

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, TUESDAY EVENING, October 1, 1867.

The produce and general markets have not changed since our last report, either in regard to improvement in trade or prices. Business seems to be confined to from hand to mouth purchases—country merchants and consumers are not disposed to purchase to any larger amount than is actually requisite to supply urgent wants. From some reason or other there appears a lack of confidence in present prices, and dealers and consumers prefer coming to market often in preference to buying extensively at once.

We quote as follows, which are the wholesale store prices unless otherwise noted:

BACON—Market active and firm at the following prices; Shoulders 14½@15c; rib sides 16¾@17c; S. C. hams 24c, and some dealers asking 25c, with a scant supply reported; plain canvassed hams 19c, and uncanvassed 17½c; and lard 14¾@15c ₩ lb.

MESS PORK—Our reports this morning were in error, and we correct by quoting Mess Pork at $24 50 ₩ bbl, at which price there is a fair demand.

LARD OIL—There is a good demand at $1 10@1 12 for No. 1; 90c for No. 2, and for Cincinnati winter strained $1 23 ₩ gallon is reported as the ruling figure.

HAY—Sales reported at the city scales from country wagons of 23 loads at $15 00@19 00 ₩ ton.

CHEESE—We quote Goshen at 18½c to the trade; western factory at 14c, and Swettzer at 19@20c ₩ lb.

APPLES—Receipts of choice small and prices ranging from $3@4 ₩ bbl.

EGGS—We quote eggs in demand at 20@21c ₩ doz.

BUTTER—Choice butter is very scarce on account of the dry weather, which has entirely cut off the pasture, and prices are gradually getting higher. We quote good butter in demand at 30@35c ₩ lb.

POTATOES—Choice Irish potatoes are quoted at 90c ₩ bush, and Jersey sweets at $4 25@4 50 ₩ bbl.

WHEAT—We quote choice red winter at the mills selling at $2 28, with an occasional sale of very choice at $2 30@2 35 ₩ bush. There is very little doing, although the receipts are improving and a good deal is sent forward to Eastern markets.

CORN—There is no stock on hand and but light receipts. We quote shelled at $1 28@1 30 ₩ bush.

OATS—There is an active demand with but light receipts. Prices range from 66c from first hands to 70c delivered.

RYE—We quote rye at $1 30@1 35 ₩ bush.

BARLEY—Sales reported at the depot at $1 30 ₩ bush.

FLOUR—There is an advancing tendency and many merchants here are holding at higher figures than our quotations, which are $10 5@10 75 for choice spring wheat flour; medium $10 00@10 25; choice brands of winter $11 50@11 75, and medium winter $11 25@11 50 ₩ bbl. At the present time it is difficult to give a correct quotation, as dealers are wide apart in their prices.

We quote the Pearl Mill prices as follows:

	—Barrels.— Wholesale.	Retail.	—Sacks.— Whole-sale ₩ 100 lb.	Retail ₩ 100 lb

LIVE STOCK MARKETS.

CHICAGO.

The past week has been one of the dullest and most disastrous weeks of the season. The market, says the Tribune, has been utterly prostrate, and trade without the slightest evidence of vitality. The supply has not been remarkably large, but such has been the sluggish movement, that the arrivals from day to day largely exceeded the demand, and a depreciation in values was the inevitable result. The character of the markets abroad was not such as to induce an active movement on the part of shippers; indeed, the almost positive assurance which these interests felt that their ventures could but result disastrously, drove them almost entirely from the "ring," and many of our heaviest operators have not taken a "hoof." A few of the more venturesome, those who appear to live more upon the excitement of traffic than the accruing profits of their transactions—still lingered, but they were exceedingly shy and cautious in their movements, taking such lots only as suited their fancy, and where liberal concessions were offered. To the inferior quality of the animals, may be attributed, in no small degree, the extreme dullness and depressions that have distinguished the market during the past week. All have suffered to a greater or less extent, while many have been heavy losers. It is estimated that fifty thousand dollars will no more than make good the losses sustained by drovers during the past week. The demand from packers—upon which sellers largely depend for their absorption of this common and medium stock—failed them to a great extent; the warm weather that has prevailed utterly precluding the idea of active operations on their part. Feeders have been the most active operators, but they, even, evinced no disposition to take hold until prices had been forced down to a very low range. Buyers from Western New York, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio, were in attendance, and several hundred head found their way into their hands at $3@4 25 for common to good stock steers. There was little really choice stock on the market, and the few offerings were taken up at fair rates.

Values have steadily depreciated from day to day until we note a decline of fully 50@75c ₩ 100 lbs on common and medium descriptions. Good to prime grades being in better demand, and in less liberal supply, the reduction on such was less marked, though 25@35c would no more than cover the decline.

On Saturday there was a fair inquiry, but prices were weak and unsettled, and, in their anxiety to realize, holders, in most instances, were disposed to make liberal concessions. The demand was confined principally to stock Steers and butchers' Cattle, at a range of $2 50@4 00 for inferior mixed lots to good stock Steers, and good butchers' Cattle. Several hundred head of the "scallawag" order remain in the pens unsold and unsalable, except at a still further reduction. The following were the

CLOSING PRICES:

Extra Beeves—Fine, fat, well formed, 4 to 6 year old steers, and averaging 1,200 lbs and upwards	$6 25@6 50
Prime Beeves—Good, well fatted, finely-formed steers, averaging from 1,100 to 1,400 lbs, at	5 25@6 00
Fair Grades—Fair steers, in fair flesh, averaging 1,000@1,200 lbs, at	4 50@5 00
Medium Class—Medium steers and good cows, fit for city slaughter and averaging 800@1,000 lbs, at	3 75@4 25
Stock Cattle—Common cattle in decent flesh, averaging 800@1,000 lbs, at	2 75@4 25
Inferior—Light and thin cows and steers	2 25@2 50

HOGS—During the past week there has been a healthy strong demand for good to prime fat even lots of hogs, and as the arrivals of such were quite moderate, prices have been tolerably well sustained, but for common light uneven lots, which have been in excessive supply, the market has ruled dull and depressed, and prices have steadily receded, showing, at the close, a reduction of fully 50@75c ₩ 100 lbs. But even at this decline sales dragged heavily, and we note, at the close, several hundred head for which buyers could not be found. The demand has been chiefly for the markets of New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Buffalo, though minor points were represented, and operated in a small way.

On Saturday the demand was fairly active, and all desirable grades were readily absorbed, but owing to unfavorable news from the East, an easier feeling obtained, and on a majority of sales made we note a further decline of 5@10 cents. Sales were made at a range of $5 00@6 50 for inferior to good smooth lots.

The following are the closing prices of this week compared with those of last:

	This week.	Last week.
Good to choice	$6 60@6 85	$6 70@6 90
Medium to fair	5 75@6 25	6 30@6 50
Common	5 00@5 50	5 50@6 10
Stock Hogs	4 00@4 75	3 50@4 75

For the corresponding periods in the years 1865 and 1866 we find the following:

Good to choice	$9 70@9 90	$13 00@13 25
Medium to fair	9 40@9 60	12 50@12 75
Common	9 00@9 25	12 00@12 25
Stock hogs (nominal)	@	10 50@11 00

SHEEP—The market has ruled extremely dull, and for common and inferior grades, which have composed the great bulk of the arrivals, prices have been weak and irregular at $1 25@1 75. Good to prime mutton qualities were about the only descriptions inquired for, but the demand for such, even, was by no means urgent, so that the arrivals, though quite limited, proved sufficient to meet the requirements of the trade. We quote good to choice at $3 00@3 75; medium to fair at $2 00@2 75, and inferior to common $1 25@1 75.

LOUISVILLE.

At the Bourbon House the supply of cattle during the past week was fully up to the demand. The quality consisted almost entirely of the common to fair grades, and sold at 4½@5½c for the best; 3½@4c for fair; 2¾@3¼c for common, and 2¼@2½c for inferior and rough. At the Shelby House the receipts were not so large as during the previous week, but still the market was partially crowded and prices low. Sales dull, and prices about 50c lower than the previous week. We quote first class butcher's stuff and shipping cattle 4½ to 5c; medium 3 to 3½c, and common and inferior 1½ to 2½c.

HOGS—Are in good demand, and prices firm at 6¾@7½c for smooth, well fatted, and 6¼@6½c for fair and common; rough not salable.

SHEEP—Are in good demand at 3¼@3½c, live weight, for heavy shipping, and $2 00@2 75 ₩ head for fair.

LAMBS—Sell at $2 00@3 25 ₩ head for fair to choice; common not salable.

FOREIGN IRON TRADE.

The general condition of the trade during the past week, says Ryland's Iron Trade Circular (Birmingham, England,) of September 14th, has been one of activity on a moderate scale, with sufficient orders or progressively increasing inquiries. While cotton is woefully depressed and the corn market spasmodically distracted and elevated (by a sudden demand from France which strikingly indicates a warlike preparation)—the kindred industries of iron and coal are slowly, but systematically, reviving, and the improvement anticipated for September in commercial circles is manifesting itself. There is a general opinion, that if this enhanced degree of progress be not interrupted by suicidal action on the part of the Trades Unions, the iron trade, will, within a short period, recover its capital position, and a continuous business ensue on a firmer and sounder basis to the advantage of employer and employed. At the present moment orders are coming into this country, which on other occasions have been sent in preference to French and Belgian houses. The permanency of this inclination in our favor depends on the power of production being undisturbed, and the possibility of entering upon contracts, or any calculations for competition in which can only be based upon a fixed rate wages, through which alone the ironmaster can reckon upon the profit and the men make sure of constant employment.

The market for pigs is in an encouraging condition; but prices might be better, at any rate more level; the necessities of some small masters inducing an undercurrent of competition of which buyers are keen to take advantage. This and the yet unsteadiness of credit will tend to keep pigs back for some weeks to come, probably over next quarter day. The Scotch market is firm and steady. From the North, reports of a more healthy condition reach us.

Manufactured iron is mending, but prices are still the subject of complaint. Some large orders for girders are out, and rails continue to go off in quantities. The Railway Companies are coming into the markets, and the building trades are said to be awaiting some more permanent arrangement of the present differences with their men, to launch out into undertakings of a character that insures the consumption of iron to a very large extent. Hoops, sheets, nail rods, and lighter descriptions of manufactured iron are giving full employment to makers, and seem to be in places better prospects as the season advances. This will be more particularly observed by those who receive letters from the North.

The following is the Glasgow report for the week. Prices, though fluttering occasionally, are inclined to rise, and the market has been generally firm, and there has been steady sale for the past six months. On Monday the pig iron market was rather firm, and a limited business was done at 53s 3d cash, and 53s 1½d to 54s 3d one month fixed, closing buyers over, and sellers 54s 4½d cash. On Tuesday the market was rather weak, and prices of warrants slightly declined—54s 3d one month having been accepted. On Wednesday the market was more depressed, but a fair business was done at 54s 1½d fourteen days, and 54s to 53s 10½d cash, closing sellers at the latter quotation, and buyers at 53s 9d. On Thursday the pig iron market showed some improvement, and a moderate business was transacted at 53s 9d one month, and 53s 7½d to 53s 10d cash, closing buyers at 53s 9d cash, and sellers 53s 10½d. On Friday the market was steady—sellers at 54s 1½d cash, and buyers at 54s. Shipments for the week are not so strong as last recorded, 13,323 tons against 15,266. Makers having found buyers, but not in sufficient quantities to pull up prices. Quotations are: Bars, 8l 17s 6d to 7l 5s; Angle iron, 7l 10s; Nail Rod, 7l 5s; Plates, 8l to 10l F O B, less usual discount.

RIVER TELEGRAMS.

Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, October 1.—The river is stationary. There was a frost this morning.

RIVER NEWS.

THE RIVER AND MATTERS ALONG THE WHARF.—Business along the landing was not very active, the trade above the bridge being confined to the light water packets, which are doing all they can to accommodate people that live along the valley. The water is the lowest we have experienced for many years. The prospect for a rise is not very flattering. We suppose we shall have to wait.

SATURDAY'S Louisville Courier copies our article on "The Bridge Question," and credits the same to the Pittsburgh Gazette. The credit is a matter of no consequence, except we want no person to be responsible for what we write except ourselves. The Courier goes on to say: "We never advocated the Wheeling bridge to the obstruction of river navigation."

Of course not. But at the same time you contended that ninety feet was plenty high. Louisville will soon be in a situation to see and feel how low bridges work. But don't get excited. We contend now, as you did years since, that if ninety feet was a sufficient height for the Wheeling bridge, you have no right to ask for any other height for Louisville. But don't be unhappy; it won't pay.

THE steamer Robert Moore has been chartered to run between Cincinnati and Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, September 28.—The channel depth is unchanged; twenty-three inches in the canal, about twenty-six inches over Portland bar, and twenty-six inches at Scuffletown.

THE Louisville Democrat of Saturday says: The insurance companies of this city have wisely resolved not to insure freight any more on barges. This is to be so all the time. It would be a benefit to the commercial interests of the city.

THE St. Louis Republican says: A letter from New Orleans, dated the 23d ult., announces the death in that city, of the prevailing epidemic, of Wm. Nolan and Hugh Davis, two well known mates in the trade between this city and New Orleans.

THE fine light draught steamer Leclaire No. 2, Captain M. A. Cox, takes her departure to-day at 5 P. M. for Brownsville and intermediate points. To persons going that way the present opportunity should not be neglected.

ST. LOUIS, September 28.—The river is again declining here. It swelled about twelve inches at Keokuk and improved all the way from St. Paul. The Missouri is in fair condition from the mouth to Omaha. The Nightingale is again loading for the Lower Mississippi. The Sherman leaves for Vicksburg this evening. The Schuyler has taken the place of the Illinois, which exploded her bigger boiler yesterday.

AN OLD STEAMBOAT TRAVELER.—Mr. John Highman, of Alton, was one of the participants in the excursion at the first trial trip of Fulton's first steamboat. He was at the time a mere boy, and his father being a friend and companion of Fulton, was invited by the latter to accompany him on the steamer's trial trip, and young John was included in the invitation. Mr. H. still retains recollections of many incidents that took place upon the occasion.

MEMPHIS, September 29.—Weather clear and pleasant. No material change in the river. The channel is cutting out slowly. The packets report four and a half feet to Cairo, and six and a half feet between here and Vicksburg. The Arkansas remains low, with twenty-three inches in the channel. The Commonwealth passed down at 4 P. M., nine days out from Cairo. The Virginia passed down, and is still aground at Horse Lake, 180 yards from the channel. The Luminary has been working at her for two days. The Yankee, and Cargo, several days out from Cairo, have not arrived yet.

ST. PAUL.—The Pioneer furnishes the following: The new United States quarterboat, which has been under construction at St. Anthony by Gen. Warren, for the Mississippi river survey, is about completed, and will be launched on Tuesday, September 24th, at half-past two o'clock P. M. This boat is built in the most substantial and workmanlike manner, and reflects great credit on the builder, Wm. Ivory, who has accomplished the work with the greatest dispatch. It will be ready for delivery at an early day. The Montana is rapidly progressing with preparations to try one of these triangular scrapers. It is expected that she will be ready to have it attached to-morrow. Beef slough will probably receive the first attention, though a little experimenting will be done before she goes down there, to see that everything is in perfect order.

WE understand that the contract for building the Mississippi Valley Telegraph for the Minneapolis and Winona Division has been let, the contractors agreeing to take 50 per cent. of their payment in stock. Two wires are to be stretched, the line to be completed between the two points by the 25th of November. Poles have been contracted for to supply the line from Minneapolis to Dubuque.

The river continues in a good stage, the increase of six inches by recent rains having helped materially at those points where water was becoming thin. It is now reported that a rise of five feet is coming out of the Chippewa river. This will still further benefit navigation below the lake, though it will perhaps delay the experiment with the scraper on the Montana at Beef Slough. She is now ready to go out, whenever orders are received.

On Sunday the Damsel came up in place of the War Eagle. She has gone on the ways at La Crosse, to receive some needed repairs.

LOUISVILLE IS GOING TO BE HAPPY.—The Democrat proposes the following way of accomplishing that object:

"Louisville has a chance to become 'the head of navigation.' There will be no 'draw' in the bridge over the Falls, and boats at a fair stage of water cannot get up or down under it; so all we have to do now is to fill the canal with rocks, snags, &c., and we will have the 'dead wood' on everything above here. We have only one thing to fear. The Cincinnati fellows would come down here, hide four or five old spoons back of town, let Butler know of the 'hidden treasure,' and before Louisville would know what she was about, there would be a canal cut through and our city be thrown into a free State. It would be Louisville, Indiana, and an island at that. What shall we do?"

CINCINNATI.—Monday's Gazette on the situation: The weather continued pleasant up to last evening. There were some clouds during Friday, Saturday and yesterday, but no rain up to the time of writing. Toward evening yesterday a strong damp wind began to prevail, which indicated a rain storm before morning.

We have never known a week to close with business so dull as on Saturday. Yesterday being Sunday none at all was transacted. There were four or five arrivals and three departures—all regular packets. No other boats are running.

The river continues to decline slowly, although it had been stationary twelve hours previous to six o'clock last evening. By the marks at the Water Works it had declined three inches since Friday evening, the date of our last report. We may report to-day twenty-eight inches, at least, at Eight Mile, and thirty inches at Medoc. The Tallequah came over the fatter bar drawing thirty-one inches. A rise of four inches was reported at Pittsburgh on Saturday, the result of heavy rains above. Our latest reports from below say there are twenty-three inches in the canal, twenty-six inches over Portland bars, and twenty-six inches at Scuffletown.

Across the Sierra Nevadas.
THE
CENTRAL PACIFIC
RAILROAD,
THE WESTERN HALF OF THE
Great National Trunk Line
Across the Continent,
Being constructed with the AID AND SUPERVISION OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT, is destined to be one of the most important lines of communication in the world, as it is the sole link between the Pacific Coast and the Great Interior Basin, over which the immense Overland travel must pass, and the Principal Portion of the Main Stem Line between the Two Oceans.
Its line extends from Sacramento, on the tidal waters of the Pacific, eastward across the richest and most populous parts of California, Nevada and Utah, contiguous to all the great Mining Regions of the Far West, and will meet and connect with the roads now building east of the Rocky Mountains. About 100 miles are now built, equipped and in running operation to the summit of the Sierra Nevada. Within a few days 35 miles, now graded, will be added, and the track carried entirely across the mountains to a point in the Great Salt Lake Valley, whence further progress will be easy and rapid. Iron, materials and equipment are ready at hand for 300 miles of road, and 10,000 men are employed in the construction.
The local business upon the completed portion surpasses all previous estimate. The figures for the quarter ending August 31, are as follows in GOLD:
Gross Earnings. $487,579 64 — Operating Expenses. $86,548 47 — Net Earnings. $401,031 17
Or at the rate of two millions per annum, of which more than three-fourths are net profit on less than 100 miles worked. This is upon the actual, legitimate traffic of the road, with its terminus in the mountains, and with only the normal ratio of government transportation, and is exclusive of the materials carried for the further extension of the road. The Company's interest liabilities during the same period were less than $125,000.
Add to this an ever-expanding through traffic and the proportions of the future business become immense.
The Company are authorized to continue their line eastward until it shall meet and connect with the roads now building east of the Rocky Mountain ranges. Assuming that they will build and control half the entire distance between San Francisco and the Missouri river, as now seems probable, the United States will have invested in the completion of 865 miles $28,592,000, or at the average rate of $35,000 per mile—not including an absolute grant of 10,000,000 Acres of the Public Lands. By becoming a joint investor in the magnificent enterprise, and by waiving its first lien in favor of the First Mortgage Bondholders, the General Government, in effect, invites the co-operation of private capitalists, and has carefully guarded their interests against all ordinary contingencies.
The Company offer for sale, through us, their First Mortgage Thirty Year Six Per Cent. Coupon Bonds,
Principal and interest payable in Gold Coin, in New York city. They are in sums of $1,000 each, with semi-annual gold coupons attached, and are selling for the present at 95 per cent. and accrued interest from July 1st added, in currency, at which rate they yield nearly Nine per Cent. upon the Investment.
These Bonds, authorized by Act of Congress, are issued only as the work progresses, and to the same amount only as the Bonds granted by the Government; and represent, in all cases, the first lien upon a completed, equipped and productive railroad, in which have been invested Government subsidies, stock subscriptions, donations, surplus earnings, etc., and which is worth more than three times the amount of First Mortgage Bonds which can be issued upon it.
The Central Pacific First Mortgage Bonds have all the assurances, sanctions and guarantees of the Pacific Railroad Act of Congress, and have in addition several noticeable advantages over all other classes of railroad bonds.
First—They are the superior claim upon altogether the most vital and valuable portion of the through line.
Second—Beside the fullest benefit of the Government subsidy, (which is a subordinate lien,) the road receives the benefit of large donations from California.
Third—Fully half the whole cost of grading 800 miles eastward of San Francisco is concentrated upon the 150 miles now about completed.
Fourth—A local business already yielding threefold the annual interest liabilities, with advantageous rates payable in coin.
Fifth—The principal as well as the interest of its Bonds being payable in coin, upon a legally binding agreement.
Having carefully investigated the resources, and prospects of the road, and the management of the Company's affairs, we cordially recommend these Bonds to Trustees, Executors, Institutions, and others, as an eminently sound, reliable and remunerative form of permanent investment.
Conversions of Government Securities
INTO
CENTRAL PACIFIC FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS
now realize for the holders from TWELVE TO EIGHTEEN PER CENT. ADVANTAGE, with the same rate of interest.
The following are the current rates (September 9th), subject, of course, to slight variations from day to day. We receive in exchange:

THE BANKERS' AND MERCHANTS' FIRST GRAND CONCERT was given at Irving Hall, July 4th. The Second Grand Concert was given August 24th, both of them proving a grand success. The mammoth hall was filled with the most respectable citizens of New York. The audience appointed a committee of nine of the leading Bankers and Merchants to examine the register of tickets and satisfy themselves of the correctness of the registration before making the grand distribution of prizes on the 24th of October.

Important to Parties Desiring Tickets.
1st. There are but few remaining unsold. Those wishing to be supplied with tickets must order at once.
2d. The distribution of Prizes will positively take place on the 24th of October, 1867.
3d. As the books will be closed immediately on the sale of the last ticket, for the purpose of the registration being examined by the Committee, it is important that we should receive orders at the very earliest moment.
